THE ANNUAL IN AFTER YEARS

Whenever feelings mournful come flooding over me,
I try to drown my sadness with some sweet memories,
Some memory of the days gone by,
When all was glad and bright,
Ere all my former joyous life has faded into night,
So then I take my ANNUAL down and turn the pages o'er
And bring to mind the thoughts again of jous that come no more.

FOREWARD

The staff of the Lind High School's annual of 1934 has endeavored, in presenting a record of events and activities, to reveal something of the spirit and ideals of the Lind High School.

If we have failed in this endeavor, we present it as a record of high school days and many happy hours spent at Lind Hi.

This staff has received a great deal of personal satisfaction from editing this annual and considers it a privilege to this serve the interests of our student body and dear old Lind High and hopes that this publication will serve as a medium of binding closer the ties of the alumni with the school.

DEDICATED:

TO THE ATHLETES

who help us to keep our Student Body spirit and enthusiasm and who help build up the best traditions of our school.

CLASS POEM

A school once had a model class,
 With faces all aglow,
 And brains of splended quality,
 That rapidly did grow.

Week after week, year in, year out,
 These pupils went to school,
 Where they were very studious,
 And never broke a rule.

They worked their problems rapidly;
 And learned history with zest,
 And when examinations came,
 Stood high in ev'ry test.

Unto herself the teacher said,
 With very doleful sigh,
 "These pupils are so wise and go
 I'm 'fraid they're going to do

The girls were charming and polit
 And fair as they could be;
 The boys were brave and handsome
 As any you would see.

And we, my friends, are that class
 Of noted brains and graces;
 Do not doubt me; just look at us
 You'll see it in our faces.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1931 the class of "34" entered the Lind High School as freshmen. They started with 30 members and lost one during the year. Mr. Rumburg was chosen as class advisor, Thelma Longmeier President; Leroy Adler, Vice President; and Evelyn Campbell Secretary and Treasure.

Three social affairs were given--a weiner roast for the Sophomores a short time after school was started; a skating party in December at MacElroy Lake for the Sophomores; and on the 29th of April they and the Sophomores entertained the Juniors.

In September 1932 the class of "34" found only 19 of their old members present and one new member, Rosie Schaal. It was soon found out that they had lost Eldah and LeRoy Adler, Russell Grobe, Lyle Woody, Victor Walker, Esther Steinmetz, Emil Fitz, and gained Emil Biermann. Class officers were Velma Longmeier, President, and Ira Smith, Secretary and Treasure.

The class participated in many school activities and supplied two star athletes, Fred Beck and Edward Babes, as well as one of the yell kings, Arthur Miller.

That year the group consisted of Walter Precht, John Knottingham, Orville Smart, Edward Babes, Wanda Gust, Wendell Longmeier, Thelma Longmeier, Velma Hayes, Velma Longmeier, Arthur Miller, Arthur Sauer, Dena Gross, Fred Beck, Ira Smith, Rosie Schaal, Russell Leedy, Evelyn Campbell, Emil Biermann and Leonard Jansen.

The next year, September 1933 the class of "34" again enrolled in school as dignified Juniors. Members lost were Russell Leedy, Arthur Miller, Marie Miller, Helen Winnett, Rhinhard Haase, Arthur Sauer, Rosie Schaal, Toby Haase. Gained Bernyce Bowers for three months and also Albert Franz.

The Juniors gave a weiner roast at McElroy Lake and invited the Frosh.

That year the Junior Prom was given in the auditorium and the Junior-Senior banquet was held in the school building under the direction of Miss Schroeder, class advisor.

This year in September 1933 they entered as "Mighty Seniors" Lost Ira Smith, Wanda Gust and Thelma and Velma Longmeier, for a half year. Gained Thelma Thompson, Harry Kasper and Chester Phillip for a half year.

October 30 the Seniors and Frosh went together as the result of a contest selling studentbody tickets and gave an all high school party for the Sophomores and Juniors.

As football started several seniors turned out. Eddie Babes, Walt Precht, Chester Phillips, Art Miller, Fred Beck, Wendell Longmeier, Orville Smart, and Harry Kasper, made the first string.

When basketball started Eddie Babes, Fred Beck (1/2 year), Walt Precht, and Art Miller made the team.

Track started this spring and Eddie Babes, Wendell Longmeier, and Art Miller turned out.

When baseball started Walt Precht, Eddie Babes, Wendell Longmeier and Art Miller turned out.

Leonard Jansen turned out for debate besides being a faithful editor of the "Little Lind Leader" for a half semester.

On March 3 the seniors presented "The Precious Pretender." Those taking part in the play were Evelyn Campbell, Leonard Jansen, Orville Smart, Velma Hayes, John Knottingham, Wendell Longmeier, Arthur Miller and Rosie Schaal.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

1. Edward Labes wills and bequeaths all his worldly ambitions to the who wishes to continue them.
2. Evelyn Campbell wills and bequeaths her ambitions of being a great woman flyer to the "Big Five." All they need now are the wings. She also wills her duty of collecting yellow slips to Helen Phillips.
3. Rosee Schaal wills her ambition of chewing gum to Mr. Merriman and Thelma Campbell. She also wills her seat in the assembly to Esther Sauer.
4. Art Miller wills and bequeaths his ability to the person who can chew matches as fast as he can.
5. Phil Biermann wills and bequeaths his seat in the assembly to Velma Longmeir.
6. John Knottingham wills and bequeaths his ability to concentrate on hard subjects to Rebecca Schaal.
7. Albert Franz wills and bequeaths his journalistic ability to Harry Snead and his typing ability to Howard Phillips.
8. Velma Hayes wills and bequeaths her good disposition to Margurite Berry and her ability of holding a boy friend for at least six months to Martha M.
9. Dena Gross wills and bequeaths her expert typing to Hulda Haase and all of her good grades to Justine Beck.
10. Leonard Jansen wills and bequeaths his debate ability to Lloyd DeVore and sincerely hopes he will treat it with care.
11. Fred Beck wills and bequeaths his ability of staying up all night to Bob Adamson; and his girl friend to Lee Schronitz with pleasure.
12. Wendell Longmeier wills his ability of walking home Bernice D. through the alley to Mode Snead.
13. Walter Precht wills and bequeaths his seat in the assembly to Bob Adamson and all his ambition to Tub and the rest of the gang.
14. Harry Kasper wills and bequeaths his waist line to Helen Hansen but does not will his girl Marjorie Schutz to anyone. He wants her.
15. We the Seniors will with regrets the Senior seats in the assembly to the Juniors.
16. To the Sophomores we leave all of our flunking grades hoping they will be able to make them up.
17. To the Freshmen we will all of our punishments during the past four years. To Mr. Campbell we will our history books hoping that he will like them better than we.
18. To Miss Telford our English books, we hope next year's Seniors won't have to use them.
19. To Miss Krehbiel we hope that she won't give so many tests to the next years' students.
20. To Mr. Rumburg we will his ability of keeping boys out of Athletics who undertake to drink, smoke and go out with wild women or ride bicycles.
21. To Miss Schroeder we will all the letters we typed this year.
22. To Mr. Merriman we will all of our Economics test papers and hope he will keep them in his Diary for the next five years.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

by Velma Hayes

Last evening at the end of perfect day, I was sitting on the veranda lost in dreams. Out of nowhere there suddenly appeared the strangest looking old woman I have ever seen. As she hobbled toward me leaning heavily on an old cane, I was frightened at the unnatural appearance of this strange creature. Her bent figure was clothed in a long black dress. Her gray hair almost hid her yellow wrinkled face.

The strangest part about her was her piercing black eyes that seemed to hold me in a horrified daze.

"Do not be afraid, my child," she said in a thin dry voice. "I am a prophet of the future. Anything you want to know I will tell you.

When I recovered my senses, I found myself asking her for a prophecy of the class of 1934 of the Lind High School.

With a fixed toothless grin on her face, she waved her cane, upon which was carved hideous looking snakes, which seemed to come alive, and we were immediately surrounded by a cloud of gray smoke.

"Ah! First I see Wendell Longmeier. He will win the World's Pie eating contest in 1939. He will break all previous records by eating ten blackberry pies in ten minutes.

Dena Gross will be a world famous pianist. She and Paderowski will play a duet before the king and queen of England and the Prince of Wales. Dean's playing will enchant the Prince's heart and again there will be the old story of a prince marrying a commoner.

Fred Beck will be a doctor in Lind Washington. He will buy the practice of Dr. Henderson.

Rosie Schual will be outstanding in the sports world. In 1933 she will be the woman's champion tennis player.

Eddie Labes will be a famous football coach. In 1939 he will be drawing down the largest salary of any coach in the world Yale and Harvard will both be on their knees for his services.

In 1949 Chester Phillips will win the belt as the world's greatest prize fighter. His trainer will be Walter Precht, who at that time will be editor in chief of the New York Tribune. Both boys will break in the movies but will find that their greatest success lies in prize fighting and publishing news papers.

Evelyn Campbell will be a famous cow girl. She will be the first woman to ride the Strawberry Roan. She is good at singing cow girl songs.

John Knottingham will be a great scientist, second only to Edison. He will discover vitamins X, Y, Z. and find a sure cure for cancer. His greatest discovery will be a liquid that defeats age. One drop diluted in a glass of water will make the young old and the old young.

Arthur Sauer will be the world's greatest wild animal trainer. Whenever you see Arthur you will see Nero his pet bear following him as tam as a bear.

Arthur Miller will be the head janitor at the Hotel Central in Lind Wash. His assistant will be Robert Adamson.

Leonard Jansen will be a news boy, and will make a little on the side lines. We had big hopes of Leonard welcoming a professor in some large college as he was Valdictorian of the Senior Class.

Emil Biermann will become a famous actor. His greatest rival in Hollywood will be Clark Gable.

Orville Smart will become known as the Hot Dog King. His famous hot dogs will be a by word three out of the world. His first stand will be financed by Harlow. H. Campbell.

ADVICE TO LOWER CLASSMEN

We advice the "Big Feve" to calm down. They're not as much as much as they think they are.

Helen Hansen to be her own sweet self.

The lower classment not believe everything next yeats seniors tell them.

Yvonne Whipple to get a new walk. That Ritzville strut is getting old.

Ferrell Tallent to continue goint with Dud. Eddie wont be waiting for ou next year.

Martha M. and Dorothe S. to leave those Ritzville boys alone and give the Lind boys a break they're dying for one.

Jeanne S. To lay off Harry for while its hard on the poor boy.

Eleanor Irby not fall for every boy that gets anew gar.

Bob Adamson not to be conceited as his brother May.

Leta M. Nickells to lay off chewing gum.

Emma Labes to lay off the assistent janitor. He is not ready to settle down yet.

Willie Rothe to leave Bernic alone she is too old for you Willie Lower classmen to follow our footsteps.

Leta Mae Nickells to keep her nose out of other peoples business.

Edna Schumaker to stay home once in a while.

Dorothey stearn doesn't need any advice. She's well educated.

Buddy Stearns to forget Esther Miller. Shes strong for frosh.

Bertha Neilke to lay off Evelyn Campbells looks, or shell get educated.

Marguerite Berry not study all summer, advise her to take some day and find theres a world around.

The Frosh in case of fire to stand still, green things don't burn.

Mr. Merriman to let up on the Economices tests its hard on the health.

Norma Railsback to take up debating. We expect great things fo you.

Paul Tennyson to quit sleeping in World History.

Ray Adamson to get an elastic hat so it will stretch with his head.

Helen Phillips not to study so much, you'll have anervous bread down.

Edwin Longmeier to lay off cigarettes, coach Rumburg doesn't like it.

Fe Manford to keep away from the Little Fox the blonde will go you if you dont look out.

We advice the Junior Class not to let the "Big Five" rule you.

They are not what they are cracked up to be.

Edna Schumaker to quit fighting with that certain Senior girl.

Esther Scheeler to hild her temper, Rebecca will appreciate it.

PROPHECY (continued)

Albert Franz will become the Worlds greatest fat man. He will be seen in Barnum and Bailey and Pengling Brothers Circus. After he has been seen thru out the world and has made his millions he will settle down in New York.

And as for you my child (Velma Haros) let the future take care of itself.

SENIOR SNEAK

The Senior class of 1934 went on their glorious sneak Friday morning May 11. The group was to meet at Longmeir's house at 5:A.M. and Leonard Jansen was late so missed his car. Miss Telford was a little later.

The four groups met at the Coer d' Alene Hotel at 9:30 A.M. From here the group went through the Armour Packing CO. and Sperry Flour Mills. I think the boys enjoyed themselves at Armour's but I don't think Velma Hayes and some of the other girl's enjoyed themselves

After having gone through Sperry's we went to Manito Park for lunch. After lunch Velma H., Velma L., Dena G., Rosee S., Thelma., Emil B., Chester P., Fred B., and Leonard went to the hospital to visit Fred Damon. The group in Chesters car was the first group to arrive at Liberty Lake and had all the fires burning before the rest began to arrive.

When we were all settled Mr. Campbell bid us adieu and left. Pinckle, fan tan, and bridge were played until 11 o'clock. Beds were made and six nice boys retired to the barn to sleep, but before they left, they succeeded in borrowing all the extra covers and the pillows

John and Albert got up at 4:30. There was no sleep for any one in the barn when Chester and Pic got up. The boys that were so roughly treated out in the barn just had to even up with some one, and the house babies' were promptly pulled out of bed. No rest from then on.

The girls cooked the supper so everyone had to cook his own breakfast in the morning. Pic, Leonard, Art.M., Walt., Albert, Rosie, and Thelma went swimming but Ooooooh the water was COLD.

Orville took Miss Telford, Art, Walt, and of course Evelyn to town in the afternoon and brought Miss Schroeder out.

Almost every one went to the dance at the Pavilion and ever Mr. Campbell was present long enough to cook his supper and "disappear" again.

The next morning almost everyone was up before 8 o'clock but Miss Schroeder. She decided to sleep in and sleep in she did.

Some of the boys were lucky enough to persuade Miss Telford to prepare breakfast for them. About 9 o'clock Walt and Leonard hired the motor boat and about scared Miss Schroeder to death by dipping water into the boat while Miss Telford and the rest about died laughing.

Sometime later Miss Telford and Schroeder hired a boat and sailed off and were not seen for about 4 hours. (Wonder where they were?)

Chesters car started first and consequently got home at 5:50 P.M. Franz's at about seven, Mr. Campbell at about 8 and Orville about 12:15 A.M. (He got the alibi.) Although Miss Telford has blisters from rowing, Chet sunburns, and Miss Schroeder was about scared to death, I'm sure each and every one would be ready for another sneak. But Oh! what a Sleepy Senior Class the following day.

"SENIORS PRESENT FURNITURE"

At a meeting of the senior class, it was decided to present the student Body with a davenport set. President Arthur Miller nominated a committee---Velma Hayes, Evelyn Campbell, and Leonard Jansen to pick out and purchase the set.

The committee and President motored to Ritzville after school, Wednesday February, 21 but were unable to find anything suitable for the designated price.

Friday morning February 23, Superintendent H. H. Campbell, accompanied by his wife and Senior President and his committee motored to Spokane.

After visiting many furniture stores it was decided that it was best not to buy Mohair furniture because the moths would soon destroy it during the summer months.

A suitable set in Homespun material was selected at the 'Crescent at a very reasonable price.

This set will be used for all the plays to be hold in the future.

CLASS HISTORY

On September 5, 1931, forty six members entered the freshmen class with the attitude of working. It was one of the largest class with in the high school. Basket-Ball started and in our class Thelma Anderson, Dorothea Stearns, Jeanne Schutz, Martha Roth, Hulda Haase, Wilma Graham, Bernice Brittenham, Ferrell Tallent, and Phyllis Kasper were in the squad. No parties of any sort were given that year. The death of Henry Ocheltree, of of the peppiest of the boys, saddened the entire high school as well as causing much sorrowed vacance in the Freshman class. Martha Roth was president, Bill Farrell, Vice Pres. and Bernice Brittenham secretary and treasury during the freshman year.

In September we entered as Sophomores losing seven members. Those being Dan Haase, Tillie Dörheim, Esther Sauer, Clarence Schrag, Viola Schrag, and Max Skinner.

During this year Year Jeanne Schutz, Ferrell Tallent Bernice Brittenham and Marguerite Berry, were on the debate team. The same girls as in the freshman year made the basketball squads.

Edwin Longmeier, Bob Adamson, and Bill Farrell were the members of the boys basketball team.

No parties of any kind were given. A weinner roast was held on Wednesday, May 10th and no one but the Sophomores were invited.

This class is well represented in all high school activities.

In Septmeber we interes as Juniors trying to be as sophisticated as possible.

We soon found that we had lost Ruth Lobe, James Moorman and later in the year lost Alfred Sackman and Bob Watkins, but Esther Sauer, and Bob Timm were gained.

No parties were given, but many attended the all high school party. Jeanne Schuts, Bernice Brittenham, Alphonso Manfred, Wilbur Krug, and Ferrell Tallent were in the all high school play "Depend on me".

Martha Roth, Dorothea Stearns, Jeanne Schutz, Bernice Brittenham and Ferrell Tallent made the debate teams this year.

Bob Adamson, E ll Farrell and Tub Longmeier made the basketball squad.

Hulda Haase, Jeanne Scjutz, Bernice Brittenham, Wilma Graham, Martha Roth, Ferrell Tallent, Dorothea Stearns Thelma Anderson, Dorothy Steffins and Phyllis Kasper made the firls basketball squad.

On March 10, a very successful Junior Prom was given in the Gym. the first one to be given there.

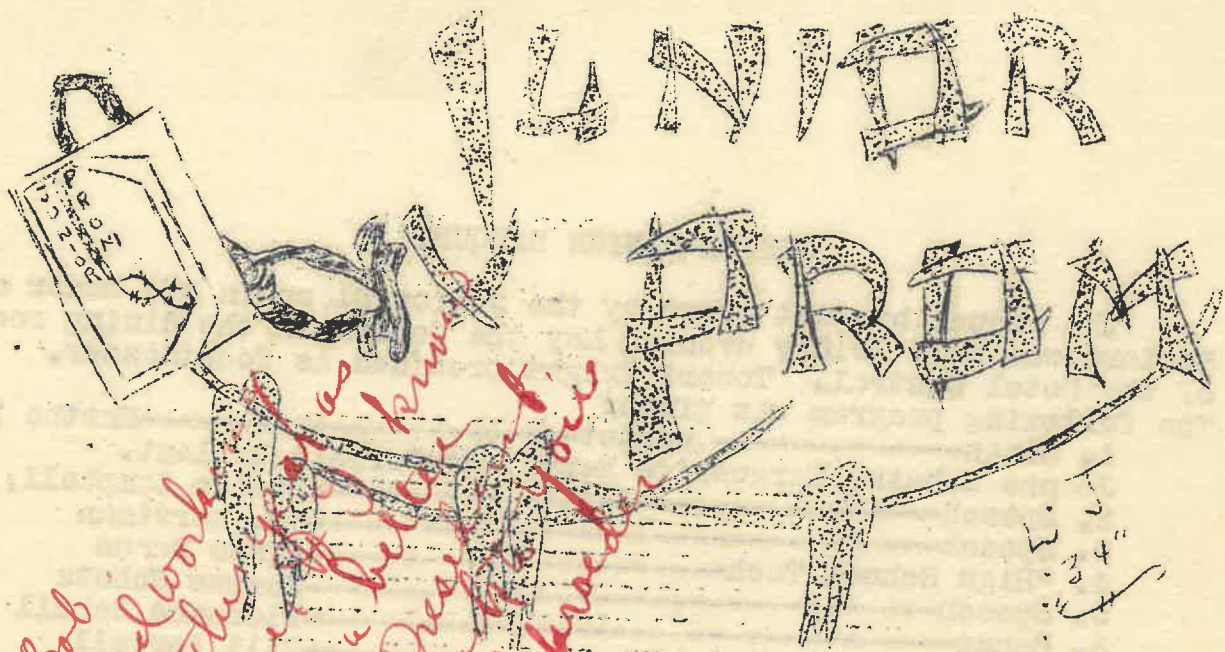

On My 4 the Junior-Senior banquet was held at the Hotel Central one of the largest and most successful banquets biven for a long time. There were 62 Juniors and Seniors and faculty members present to enjoy the banquet and dancing afterward.

FROM VERY SUCCESSFUL

The annual prom given by the Juniors March 10th in the Gym was a huge success, financially as well as socially. This was the first year a dance was permitted to be given in the school gym but it proved to be very successful. The music by Johnny Stoops orchestra of Ritzville, was good; everything was orderly, and it proved to be a well conducted dance. The gym was cleverly decorated in the three shades of green which are the Junior Class colors. The orchestra was surrounded by a latticed screen, and colored globes were attached to the lights. Flowers were also used to add a spring atmosphere to the setting.

Refreshments were served at 11:30 and were well carried out under the direction of Bernice Brittenham. The food was prepared at the Brittenham home with the help of Mrs. Brittenham Saturday and was served on the stage which was decorated to suit the occasion.

The committees were:

FOOD:

Bernice Brittenham, --Chairman, Agnes Damon, Alice Motley, Wilma Graham.

ADVERTISING:

Dorothea Stearns, --Chairman, Martha Meilke, and Bob Timm.

DECORATING:

Ferrell Tallent, --Chairman, and Phyllis Kasper.

TICKETS:

Martha Roth and Bill Farrell.

GENERAL MANAGER:

Bob Wright. Miss Schroeder is advisor of the Junior Class.

SOPHIMORE CLASS HISTORY

On September 5, 1932, twenty three bright and shining faces gazed from the southeast corner of the assembly.

Catherine Andrene, Henry Gust, Leta Mae Nickels, Esther Miller, Eleanor Irby, Edna Schumaker, Clarence Wahl, Alfred Smart, Grace Manfred, Reuben Rhode, Marie Krehbiel, Florence Schull, Esther Wahl, Bertha Meilke, Estelle Eden, Lee Schrontz, Junior Tenneson, Raymond Labes, Willie Roth, Walter Beise, Clement Stearns, Harry Snead, Frank Knotttingham, Ernest Geske, Albert Gross, and Jack Weaver enrolled at the beginning of the year, but before the year was over Walter Geise dropped out.

On My 2, they had a weiner roast at McElroy Lake. It was a partnership affair as the Juniors did half the work and furnished half the food. Everyone had a splendid time and enjoyed every minute of the affair.

September 5, 1933, found this group as Sophomores trying hard to act the part. Looking over the group it was found that they had lost Catherine Andrene and Reuben Rhode. Later in the year they lost Henry Gust and Jack Weaver. Gained Howard Hubbard, who dropped out later in the year, and Yvonne Whipple and Fred Canfield.

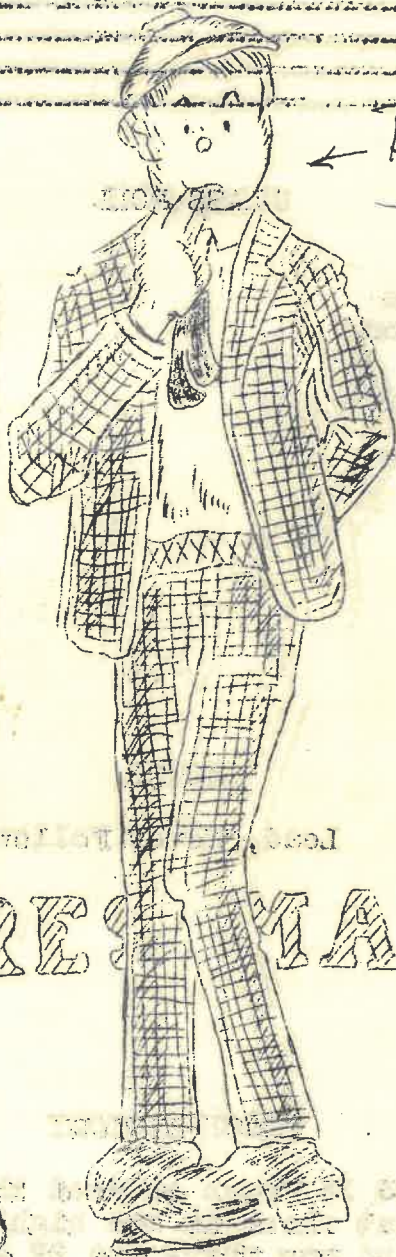

Members going on as Sophomores were: Leta Mae Nickels, Esther Miller, Eleanor Irby, Edna Schumaker, Clarence Wahl, Alfred Smart, Grace Manfred, Marie Krehbiel, Florence Schull, Esther Wahl, Bertha Meilke, Frank Knotttingham, Estell Eden, Lee Schrontz, Junior Tenneson, Raymond Labes, Willie Roth, Clement Stearns, Harry Snead, Ernest Geske, and Albert Gross.

THE LIND HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT BODY ORGANIZATION

The Student body organization was organized in the Lind High School by the Students of the High School in 1932. The reason for organizing was to raise money to carry on sports with; due to times being hard, the district could no longer foot the bill of sport expenditures.

A committee was elected to draw up a set of by-laws. The following officers were elected and the first meeting held in the high school assembly. The following officers were elected:

Senior--Clarence Hayes-----President
           Cordes Seethoff-----Vice President
 Senior--Sylvia Irby-----Sec. and Treasure
           Bob Adamson-----Representatives at larger
           Fred Damon-----
 Junior--Emil Bierman
 Sophomore--Phyllis Kasper-----Other Representatives from Junior, Freshman--Lee Schrontz                    Sophomore and Freshman Class.
           Sylvia Irby,--Irene Wilson-----Yell Leaders
           Orville Smart-----Athletic Manager

For the year of 1932-33 the student body sold membership tickets to students for $1.50 which entitled the holders to attend all basket ball and baseball games. The same year girls basketball was started. Men girls suits being bought by the student body and all other upkeep expenses taken care of with the exception of the transportation which was taken care of by the district. In April of 1933 a meeting was called and candidates nominated and elected the following were elected to serve for the coming year:

President-----Evelyn Campbell-----Senior
 Vice President-----Martha Roth-----Junior
 Sec. and Treasure-----Phyllis Kasper-----Junior Representatives at large-----Eddie Labes-----Senior Bob Wright-----Junior
 Other 2 being-----Ray Adamson-----Frosh
   Clement Stearns-----Sophomore
 Yell Leader-----Eleanor Irby and Esther Miller
 Athletic Manager-----Orville Smart-----Senior

At the beginning of the year os 1933-34 much arguing was going on as to whether we would have football or not. A definite meeting was called and the question put a vote. Football we have was the answer. The student body officer then called a meeting and budgeted the seasons expenses. Season tickets were sold for $3.00 High School $4.00 adults. Twenty two new football suits were bought. The business men of the town donated the football shoes and the first football squad that Lind High School has had for years turned out under the Coaching off C. P. Rumburg. Besides this the student body paid all transportation expenses and all upkeep expenses.

May 11 the election for next years student body officers was held The following were elected.

Robert Wright-----President
 Lee Schrontz-----Vice President
 Martha Roth-----Sec. and Treasure
 Phyllis Kasper-----Representatives at Ray Adamson  Large
 Esther Miller-----Yell Queen
 Otto Manfred-----Athletic Manager

Under the capable guidance of the New Student Body officers the student body should complete even larger and more capable projects.

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS

Dear old Ling High is gradually being remodeled. Beautiful shrubs and small trees have been planted in front of the school building. These newly planted shrubs and trees have improved the look of our school nearly one-hundred per cent.

Other improvements have been made on the school this term. One half of the old typing room has been made into a sick room and the other half serves as a cloak room. Two new storerooms have been built in the basement. One serves as an Athletic equipment store room and the other for the school supplies.

Sometime ago the School Board conceived the idea of putting in an automatic sprinkling system in our school. They studied the question and decided to adopt the plan. The Big Square Sprinkling Company of Spokane was awarded the contract.

There is to be a curbing in front of the school which will be automatically sprinkled. The system being adopted is constructed so that with one section or all of the grounds may be watered.

The contractors guarantee that the system will drain to prevent freezing and will water every inch. The water was turned on in the pipes to guarantee these two features before they were lowered in to the ground. Nipples are to be placed under the sprinklers at present to prevent washing but after grass had grown they will be removed and the sprinklers will be flush with the ground.

During the summer vacation last year the gymnasium floor was leveled in a few places, making the floor look better and much easier to play on. The steps leading down to the basement in the gymnasium have had a porch built over them. The playgrounds on the west side of the school house has been leveled off, marking a very nice playground for the grades. The tennis courts were going to be remodeled too, but for some reason unknown, the work on them was never completed.

After the lawn is planted and gets well started we will indeed have a very beautiful school ground. The new sprinkler system will enable one to keep it well watered.

Fellow students and pupils, you too can share in keeping the school attractive and neat in appearance by using the sidewalks after this project is finished on the new lawn.

LIBRARY NOTES

In our High School it seems to be very difficult to keep books in a very good condition. Of course if it were because they were so continuously read and in constant use we would rejoice but some of this wear and tear is due to a certain few careless people who do not know the real value of books and do not respect it enough to treat it kindly. Would it not be just as easy when returning a book instead of tossing it upon the librarians desk in any fashion, to place it there as though it were something that might really break? Also wouldn't it be better to return a book when you have finished with it, instead of leaving it to wonder off, perhaps into someone's hands or desk while it is still checked out in your name which entitles you to pay the book fine. Also it might become lost and that of course calls for a new book purchased by you.

We have repaired all our old library books as much as possible but we are still very much in need of fiction books in the High School

The following girls have greatly added by turning out as Librarians for one period a day, and by doing as much as possible.

Helen Phillips-----	First period
Edna Shoemaker-----	Second period
Thelma Anderson-----	Third period
Verna Hayes-----	Fourth period
Alic Motley-----	Fifth period
Esther Rennick-----	Sixth period

We have made a very good record throughout our 1934 school term having lost no books and a very few books came in late. Our Library consists of the following magazines and newspapers:

- American
- Literary Digest
- Good Housekeeping
- Boys Life
- Scholastic
- Balance Sheet
- Mygea
- Childs Life

ANNUAL PUBLICATION

The school paper was first started in 1929 by H.H. Campbell and Miss Gimble being taken over by Miss Telford the next teacher.

This paper is to be a great help to students in the high school as it is to benefit them and it tells student what is going on around school. It creates interest in the school. You don't have to go to the city editor to get it published you can publish what you want and you can advertise in the paper even if it is small. The price it takes to run the paper is very economical and ten cents does not amount to much. Each and every one of us can get a dime to have the paper so in the oncoming years lets help the school paper out and subscribe for it. You won't mess the dime.

Out of 36 debates, the Affirmative teams won 17 and the Negative teams won 19.

The annual high school debate conference held at Pullman was held on January 27th. The Delta Sigma Rho entertained the following Lind debaters:

Martha Roth; Bernice Brittenham; Dorothea Stearns; Jeanne Schutz; Ferrell Tallent; Leonard Jansen; and Clement Stearns.

Mr. Campbell and Miss Telford accompanied them.

Sunday they arrived home and reported an enjoyable time.

DRAMATICS

"THE PRECIOUS PRETENDER"

The Senior play that was given March 3rd in the Gym, was a great success financially as well as other wise.

The play was written by Charles George, and has been woven around the optimistic motive, "To pretend things are better than they really are." Buchanan Drexel has become estranged from his sister because she married the man she loved. Sue Alexander, her daughter, comes to the Drexel home. After much struggling and accusations, she finally succeeds in bringing the two families together.

The cast were as follows:

Buchanan Drexel-----	Leonard Jansen--A wealthy financier.
Steve Drexel-----	Wendell Longmeier--an unruly son.
Eloise Drexel-----	Velma Hayes--naughty aristocratic daughter.
Cavanaugh-----	John Knottingham--a young butler
Lord Marshall Kendall-----	Arthur Miller--a young Englishman.
Andrew Carmichall-----	Orville Smart--An American
Gladys Joy-----	Rosee Schaal--a young model.
Sue Alexander-----	Evelyn Campbell--The Precious Pretender.

The production staff were the following:

Faculty director-----	Miss Telford.
Student Assistant and Promotor-----	Emil Biermann
Advertising and ticket manager-----	Rosee Schaal
Stage Manager-----	Emil Biermann
Properties-----	Orville Smart and Art Miller.
Ushers-----	Dena Gross, Velma and Thelma Longmeier, Walt Precht and Eddie La'es.

Between acts several interesting features were given. Songs----- Japanese Sunset and Dreaming of my old Home Sweet Home by the Girls Sextet, and a tap dance given by Florence Schull, Estler Miller and Eleanor Irby.

After the play, the Seniors presented Miss Telford with a beautiful string of crystals.

"DEPEND ON ME"

An all high school play that was given November 18, a rollickin and side-splitting three act comedy-farce at the Lind Gym at 8:00 o'clock.

Those taking part in the cast were as follows:

John Craig---A jealous man-----	Harry Kasper
Sophie Craig--The reason-----	Jeanne Schutz
Laura Nesbit---Sophie's cousin-----	Marguerite Berry
Patrick McCormick---The pursued-----	Wilbur Krug
Olga Sundberg---The pursuer-----	Ferrell Tallent
Katherine---The maid, who knows all, and keeps all secrets-----	Bernie Brittenham
Justin Hollins---Who loves pure health-----	Alphonso Manfred
Rita Shannon---Who loves her Uncle-----	Yvonne Whipple
Eugene Windsor---Who loves Rita-----	Clement Stearns

(dramatics continued)

Dr. Ford-----Who pampers his patient----Leonard Jansen
The Guard himself-----Albert Franz

The play takes place in the tea room at Pine View Inn, during the summer time. John and Sophie Craig can't get along, and are always quarreling. Sophisticated Laura Nesbit does her best to keep peace in the family. John is jealous because his wife has come to Pine Inn for a vacation when he can't be there. He imagines she is always flirting with someone else and to really find out he disguises and stays at the Inn. The situation is made humorous because Sophie recognizes him immediately, although she doesn't know it and then she does have a good time.

Olga Sundberg was an attractive young gold digger, and she would have no other man but Patrick McCormick, wealthy middle aged financier. Katherine was a maid who kept all secrets (Yes?). Rita Stanton is Justin Hollins lovable niece who continually pampered him until Eugene Windsor came along and persuaded her to marry him, and Hollins objected. Dr. Ford is the smart Doctor.

The play turned out to be a success.

Under the direction of Miss Bertrude Krehbiel, much has been carried on in the music department this year. The following is a resume of the accomplishments of the glee club members.

FOOTBALL

The starting of football in Lind High School was one of the best things which could have happened, even if it is a few years late.

Last fall the idea was considered, it was finally adopted by the student counsel and student body. It was favored by all. Then came the problem of getting the best equipment and a field. However the student counsel appropriated enough money to buy several hundred dollars worth of equipment which will last for several years. The boys helped to clean up the baseball field, cleaned up weeds and rocks, leveled off and marked off a football field. It wasn't long until things looked like football had been played in Lind, for years.

However, the first "practice field" was the old bumpy field across from Labes'. Here the boys took many a hard jolt. But its all in the game we guess.

The boys who turned out were:--

Edward Labes	Fred Beck	Mode Sneed
Art Miller	Bob Adamson	Junior Tomason
Orville Smart	Bob Wright	Clement Stearns
Chester Phillips	Edwin Longmeier	Lee Shrentz
Harry Kasper	Alphonso Manfred	Raymond Hayes
Wendell Longmeier	Clarence Wahl	Raymond Adamson
Lester Lyle	Alfred Smart	Walter Wahl
Bob Rode	Otto Manfred	Everett Smith
	Kenneth Anderson

We lost several games, but were much harder to beat than the other teams thought.

The games played were:--

	They	We
Ritzville at Lind	7	0
Odessa (there)	19	6
Ritzville (there)	12	7
Odessa at Lind	12	12
Harrington at Lind	0	13
Harrington (there)	12	6
Kahlotus (there)	13	12
Kahlotus at Lind	7	0

We lose through graduation, Labes, Miller, Proent, Orville Smart, Chester Phillips, Harry Kasper, Wendell Longmeier, and Fred Beck. But our able coach, Rumburg, will make the things do some way.

We wish the team of "34" all kinds of luck.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girls had "tough luck" this year in basketball due to much illness of members of the squad. Jeanne and Ferrell spent part of their basketball season laid up with the flu. Phyllis Kasper suffered from a sprained ankle and other illness. Dorothea Stearns and Thelma Anderson were absent for several weeks. Also, two of our best games were scheduled on the same week-end night that our debaters attended the convention at Pullman thus taking Jeanne Schutz, Ferrell Tallent and Martha Roth and Bernice Brittenham out of the team, leaving only two first-team players.

Those who played on the first string were:

Halda Haase, Jeanne Schutz-----Forwards

Martha Roth, Ferrell Tallent-----Centers

Wilma Graham, Bernice Brittenham-----Guards

Those who subed for the first string were---Esther Miller, Phyllis Kasper---Forwards.

Dorothea Stearns, Thelma Anderson-----Centers

Eleanor Erby, Dorothy Steffins-----Guards

Those that turned out this year besides the ones mentioned above were: Yvonne Whipple, Valma Hayes, Grace Manfred, Estelle Eden, Letta Nickells, Martha Melike, Esther Wahl, Thelma Campbell, Norma Railsback, Helen Phillips, and Esther Scheeler, making 23 members in all.

The following scores are the results of the seasons games.

Dec. 8-----Connell here-----they 24-----we 8.

Dec. 11-----Othello here-----" 10-----" 9

Dec. 22-----At Harrington-----" 30 -----" 11

Feb. 2-----At Odessa-----" 31-----" 14

Feb. 6-----Harrington here-----" 20-----" 11

Our opponents chalked up 245 points against our 186 points. Many of our games being lost by only one basket margin.

Those who received letters this year were: Martha Roth, Esther Miller, Ferrell Tallent, Phyllis Kasper, Halda Haase, Wilma Graham, Jeanne Schutz, Bernice Brittenham, Dorothea Stearns, Thelma Anderson.

ANNALS OF THE

The first day of the month was a day of great importance to the people of the State. It was a day when the people were called upon to show their loyalty to the Government and their affection for the Union. The day was marked by a series of patriotic exercises and a display of the national flag.

The exercises were held in the city square and were attended by a large number of people. The flag was hoisted at sunrise and remained flying until sunset. The people sang the national anthem and other patriotic songs. The day was a day of unity and harmony.

The day was also a day of reflection. The people were reminded of the sacrifices made by their forefathers for the freedom and independence of the Nation. They were encouraged to strive for the betterment of the State and the welfare of the people.

The day was a day of hope and confidence. The people were assured that the Government was committed to the principles of justice and equality. They were encouraged to continue to support the Government and to work for the progress of the Nation.

The day was a day of pride and honor. The people were proud of their Nation and their Government. They were honored by the display of the national flag and the exercises held in their honor.

The day was a day of love and devotion. The people loved their Nation and their Government. They were devoted to the principles of the Constitution and the welfare of the people.

The day was a day of peace and tranquility. The people were at peace with themselves and with each other. They were tranquil in their hearts and minds.

The day was a day of joy and happiness. The people were joyful and happy. They were happy to be part of the Nation and to live in the State.

ANOTHER NELL STORY

By Marie Krehbiel.

In the cabin on the hill, the candle light was burning. Overhead, the night hung dark. The rain swept in gusts from off the foff. The lightning flash score revealed the ominous scene. The moaning of the pine trees and the crash of the distant mountain torrent were carried on by the rushing wind.

Within the cabin, a figure crouched on the lone rickety table. It was the widow Nell; brooding over a cross-word puzzle. In the corner, her half-wit son, Dudley, was laughing with childish glee, as he gently tapped his baby sister over the head with a twelve pound sledge.

The lightning flashed. The candle sputtered out. It was a hellish night. All were awaiting the return of the drunken father, Lancelot McGregor. Twelve years ago tonight had he left, galloping away on a freight in search of the Holy jail. Would he ever return?

A shot rang out. A bullet grazed her ear. "Twas only Dudley at target practice. Tears came to Nell's eyes-----tears from onions which she had just peeled. Oh, would Lancelot never return? How she had loved him!

The cracking of the floor brought Nell to her feet. She turned quickly. It was Dudley at play again. How he laughed as he advanced on her with a stilletta glittering in his hand. What a playful son--- --truly Lancelot's offspring. The mother instinct surged up in her. She reached out her hands and encircled his neck. He turned black in the face, but she held him tighter, her son. At last he sank to the floor. She had strangled him. A distant coyote howled and three rattle-snakes thumbed their noses at each other. Would Lancelot never return?

Somewhat or other the howling of the wind, the clash of the nearby icebergs and the swearing of the monkeys in the sage brush seemed to tell her that tonight he would return. But would she remember him after all these years? Would she recognize that Medusa face of his, with that Bull Montana hair cut? How joyfully he had left her as she lay on the floor starving. He was the man she loved. Ha! Ha!!

Sssssssssssssssssssssss! The pitter patter of footsteps sounded in the distance. What could it be? Was it the cow regurgitating again, or just the roosters playing checkers? A knock on the door. A lifted latch. In on the floor fell a human form, dead----yes, dead drunk.

Nell jumped from her chair and gave him a vicious kick in the head. Could it be Lancelot, Lancelot, the man she loved? Had her slue-foot husband returned after all these twelve years? She recognized him now. Yes, it was Lancelot, her moron husband, with the same smile, that same tooth, and those same socks.

A QUEER STORY

By Harry Snead

The bedroom was changed around; all of the curtains were pulled. What time was it? Roy just awoke from what he thought was a deep sleep. He was supposed to go to a funeral of a lifelong friend. He thought; He must have been robbed or ransacked or something of that kind. He quickly dressed and started for the morgue. Coming down the street he saw Murphy, the big redfaced policeman, standing on the corner. How long he had known Murphy who had his beat on that corner for 25 years or more! Coming up to him he said in a cheery manner "Good Morning," but to his surprise and amazement Murphy didn't ever turn to look at him. As he walked along he thought: "What have I done to make him angry at me?"

At last he sighted the morgue. He saw the cars lined up along the street. "My, what a large crowd at that funeral, he thought. He walked up to the door and saw the doorman. However the doorman apparently didn't seem to see him.

Going through the hallway he came to the chapel. There were many people sitting in the pews but he found a seat in the back. As the minister was praying for the deceased he (Roy) suddenly couldn't think who this man was that had been his lifelong friend. What a silly thing to forget. Then he began to tremble; he couldn't even picture his friend in his mind. He waited with great suspense for the obituary.

Finally the minister began the obituary. Roy Pentleton Barthrop was born in----- Roy fell in a swoon. Two minutes had elapsed when Roy regained consciousness.

After the minister finished with a short sermon he sat down. An usher came forth and opened the lid of the coffin which was in the middle of the aisle. After doing that he motioned the first row of people to come and gaze for the last time. Roy waited with agony to view the deceased. Finally he walked up to the coffin. He looked in and saw gazing up at him a twisted, snarled, pale face of a dead man. There was a resemblance to himself.

Again he thought he was going into a swoon: he clutched the side of the coffin for support and trembled violently. As he felt better he looked at the face again and walked away. He saw James his servant going up to look at the corpse in the coffin. He dazedly recalled how, when he was lying in bed, and James was standing next to the doctor, he suddenly choked and everything had gone black. Now he realized why Murphy the policeman didn't know him, why the doorman didn't seem to see him. With horror he watched the coffin being wheeled out; then followed it out.

He then wondered where he was living in such a state of being. He was a ghost, a spirit, who was to see and to hear what other people had to say about him after he was dead and to haunt them.

He started down the street when he heard someone calling his name. He bumped into something blindly. When he came to he was in bed. What a relief! It wasn't true. It was too terrible. When he awoke he was cold with sweat. He called James and told him how he felt. James laughingly said, "I told you you shouldn't have stuffed yourself with that mincepie and coffee last night." "Thank God," said Roy, "That it wasn't me! It was only a dream."

Joan, 5, out to tea was puzzled when she saw the family bce their heads for graze.

"What are they doing?" she asked.

"Giving thanks for our daily bread."

"Don't you give thanks at home, Joua?"

"No, said Joan, "We pay for o'r bread.

Erheart Meske; Ray Adamson is certainly conceited.

Otto Maffred: Yes on his birthday last year he sent a telegram of congratulations to his mother.

Professor: "Tell me one or two things about Jon Milton."

Leta Mae: "Well he got married and wrote "Paradise Lost". Then his wife died and he worote "Patadise Regained.

Orville Smart: May iay I marry your daughter?

Father: What is your vocation?

Orville Smart: I'm an actor.

Father: Then get out before the footlights.

Jeanne. Billy tried to kiss me in the moonlight last night.

Marguaite: Gracious! Dod you make him get that idea out of his head?

Jeanne: Of course. I made him step into the shadows were no one could see.

Clement Stearns: Did you tell your family I was coming over this evening and read some poetry?

Yvonne W.: Yeas, and it worked like a charm. They're all going out to the movies.

Mode Smead: I like a girl who's able to think.

Willei Rothe Yes, appisites always attract.

Tub L.: If you were out with a girl who didn't smoke, drink, or pet, what would you do to show her a good time?

Bob A.: I'd teach her to smoke, drink, and pet.

Rose B.: By the way, do you know what's worse than a guy who uses his knife to eat with?

Afgnes D.: Why sure, a guy who uses ti to stick his friend in the back with.

Eleanor Irby: What kind of soup did you have for dinner?

Leta Mae Nickell: I forget, it began with a Z.

Eleanor: Silly. No soup begins with a Z.

Leta Mae: Alaphabet soup.

Leonard: Do you want to hear something ducky?

Florence: Surely

Leonard: Quack, Quack.

Velma Longmeier: Did marriage have a settling influence on you two boys?

Fred Beck: Yeas, we've been settling breach-of-promise siuts ever since.

Jeanne Schutz--If you were me would accept Harry?
Mollie Roth--If I were you I'd accept anyone.

Florence S. Why did you break your engagement to Emile?
Vonne W. He deceived me. He told he he was a liver and kidney specialist, and I found out he only worked in a butcher shop.

Father--What do you mean by coming in so late?

Edie Labes--Oh dad, I forgot to tell you--I knew you wouldn't mind--I was sitting up with the sick son of the sick man you are always telling mother about.

Estelle Eden: I see you are getting better marks lately.

Grace Manfred: My dad's on a trip and I do all my work myself.

I haven't got the rheumatiz
I haven't got the grip,
I haven't got the whoopin cough,
No doctor's dope I sip.
But I must stay in bed all day
I dare not stir a stump;
They've taken all my underclothes
to wrap around the pump.

Teacher: Alfred can you define a hypocrite?

Alfred S. Mess ma'am. It's a boy or girl that comes to school with a smile on his face.

Otto M: Papa I ain't got no butter
Papa: Alphonso correct your brother.

Alphonso--(looking on plate) Yes,
you is.

Report-card day called forth the usual protest from Dad. He conclude "Next report-card day, I should like to see you as near the head of your class as your now near the foot."

Clement Stearns responded impatiently, "Aw, what difference does it make Dad? They teach the same thing there.

Professor: What is your name son?

Student: Jhle sir.

Professor: You shouldn't abbreviate. Your name is Julius. Next:
What is your name little boy?

Small Boy: (half scared) "Billious

Little Rosalie, a first grader, walking with her mother, spoke to a small boy.

"His name is Jimmy, and he's in my grade," she replied.

"What is the little boy's last name?" her mother asked.

"His whole name" said Rosalie
"Is Jimmy sit down--that's what the teacher calls him.

Admirer: "What a charming necklace

Ferrell: Yes isn't it adorable?
made entirely of engagements rings.

Anxious Mother: And is my Willie very trying?

Teacher: "Very".

Esther M: Your boy friend has a new suit!

Marie K. No, he hasn't.

Esther: Well something's different.

Marie K: I have a new boy friend.

Bob returned from school with his report card for his mother's inspection.

"But dear," she said, "what's the trouble?" Why have you such poor grades this month?

"Theres no trouble, Mom," was the quick reply. You know yourself things are always marked down after the holidays.

Old Lady: "Is this the train to Hamburg?

Guard: Yes Ma'am---jump in,

Old Lady: Are you sure it goes to Hamburg?

Guard: Well ma'am, the station master, the engine driver, the stoker, the brakeman, the conductor and the waiter in the dining room say it goes to Hamburg, and that is all I know.

An editor was dining out.
"Would you like some pudding?" his hostess asked.

"No thank you," replied the editor absentmindedly, "Owing to tremendous pressure of space I am reluctantly compelled to decline."

Customer: I hear my son has owed you for a suit for 3 years.

Tailor: Yes, sir, have you called to settle his account.

Customer: No sir, I'd like a suit myself on the same terms.

Motorist (after knocking over a butcher's boy) I'm sorry, my lad; are you allright?

Boy (picking up contents of his basket) Dunno. Here's me liver and ribs but where's the kidney?

Orville: "Thinking of me dearest?"

Evelyn: "Was I laughing? I'm so sorry."

Helen H. invites boy friend to dinner which she cooked herself.

Walt: "What did you do to this meat? It has such a peculiar taste."

Helen: "Oh nothing. It did get a little burnt, but I fixed that—I applied Unguentine right away."

Sunday school Teacher: Why in your prayers do you only ask for daily bread instead of asking enough for a week?

Jeanne: So we can get it fresh ever day.

At the end of the school term prizes were awarded. When one of the pupils returned home his mother chanced to be entertaining callers.

Well Walt, said his mother, "Did you get a prize?"

"I didn't exactly get a prize," said Walt "but I got a HORRIBLE mention."

Leonard: Do you like women who talk or the other kind?

Fred B: What other kind.

Mr. Merriman: The gas in this cylinder is deadly poison. If any escaped what steps would you take.

Willie Roth: Long ones.

"Well my boy," said Uncle Tom "and how are you getting along in school. I'm trying awful hard to get ahead," responded Ray Adamson.

"That's good," said the uncle, "You need one."

Howard W: Women don't interest me. I prefer the company of my fellow men.

Ray H. I'm broke too, brother.

Bernice: You got fooled on this diamond ring.

Willie: I guess not. I know my onions.

Bernice: Yeah, but you don't know your carrots.

Wendell: Can you operate a typewriter?

Eddie L: Yes sir, I use the biblical system.

Wendell: I never heard of it.

Eddie L: Seek and ye shall find.

Mrs. Greens (at her first ball game) Oh isn't it awful? Why, they will kill that poor boy underneath.

Martha: Don't be silly Mrs. Green. He doesn't mind it. He's unconscious by this time.

Diner: (to waiter with black eye) Why don't you a ply a piece of sheak to it?

Waiter: It was'nt a p of steak the gentlemen threw at me.

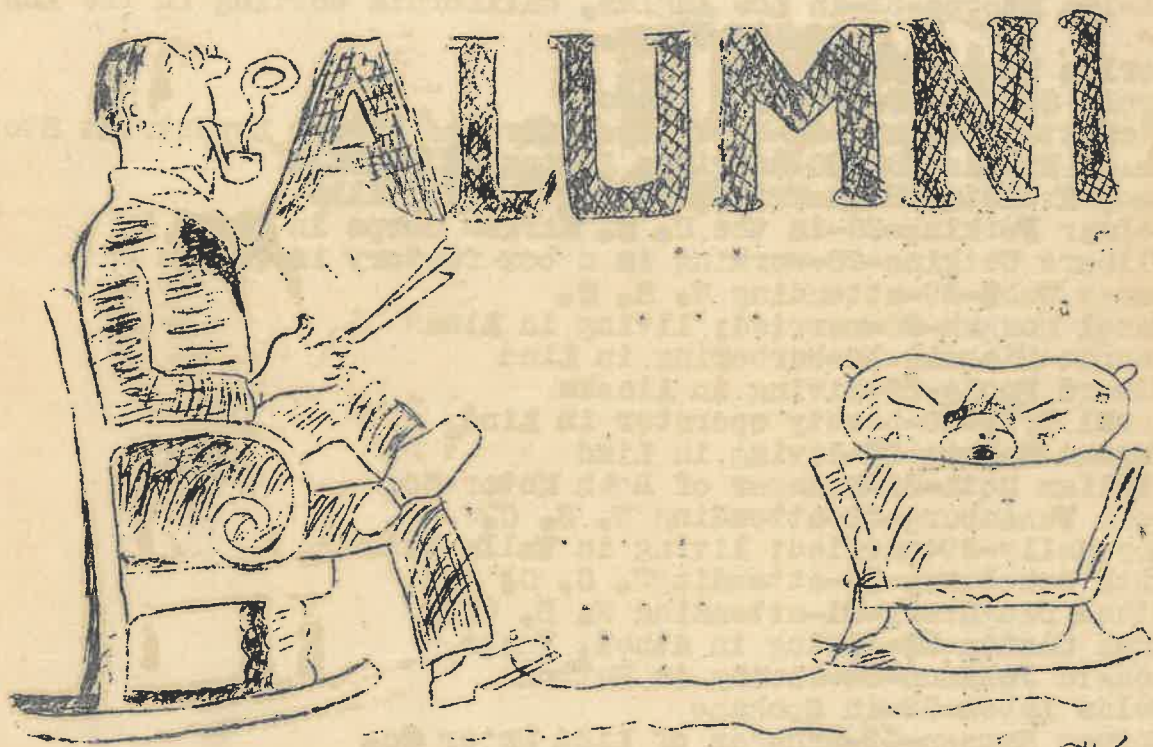

Tramp: (talking to Dofe) I haven't averaged more than one meal a day for a week.

Dofe: Oh are you trying to reduce?

Employer: It is true that when the clock strikes 6 you put down your pen and leave the office even if you are in the middle of a word?

Clerk: Certainly not, sir. When it gets near six I never began a word.
