LIND HIGH SCHOOL
Lind, Washington

Dedication

We, the Seniors of 1952, do hereby dedicate this annual to our understanding parents, without whose help our education and the memories recorded herein would not have been possible.

Carla Labes

Foreword

We have once again chosen "Progress" as the title of our annual, in order to uphold the tradition established some years ago. The contents are in accordance with the title, as it depicts the progress that we have made in years past.

The theme of "Bulldogs" has been carried out as a tribute to the emblem of Lind High School.

This annual is a record of the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Two, its activities and memorandums. We hope you will enjoy reading it as much as we enjoyed compiling it.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class, residing at the Lind Public School, in the county of Adams, state of Washington, continent of North America, on the Western Hemisphere, of the planet Earth, in the year 1952, and being of sound mind and memory, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by us heretofore made. FIRST: We give and bequeath all our integrity, rank and superiority to our beloved Junior Class, to have and to hold as their property absolutely.

SECOND: To the dear Sophomore Class we will our ability to get along with all the other classes.

THIRD: To the Freshman Class we will our class unity, and hope you may profit by it as we have.

FOURTH: To the lowly disparaging incoming Frosh, we will our ability to make the most of our school days.

FIFTH: To the Faculty we will back a head without aches, which you so willingly lost to our cause.

SIXTH: And to ANYONE feeling in the need, we will our ability to take a short vacation to a quiet, restful lake the first week of school.

CLASS MEMBERS WILL AS FOLLOWS:

We, Norman Sackmann, Mike Haase, and Ed Wahl, will our ability to be the only seniors boys to skip school, and get away with it at least once a week to Richard Cline, Orville Branson, and Cleve Borth. Here is a nail to puncture your tire, a four leaf clover for good luck, and a package of forged blue slips.

I, Joy Ann Deerheim, will my ability to go steady four years with the same person to Donnie Rehn. Here, Donnie, is a chain that helped me a great deal, and I hope it will be useful to you.

I, Roy Fode, will my ability to grow tall and thin to Donnie Haase. Mustard, here's a girdle to keep you looking thin, and a pair of stilts to make you grow tall.

I, Wilford Pacque, will my ability to get along with the faculty to Jerry Dirks. Jerry my boy, here is a book on "The Power of Influence." May it help you to understand teachers and win you many new faculty friends. They really are nice people when you get to know them.

I, Carla Labes, will my sense of humor to Darlene Gallion. Darlene, I find that a little humor goes a long way, so I'm giving you one of my joke books. You can start yourself a library now.

I, Don Albershardt, will my manly physique to Gary Nickell. Here's a coupon, Gary, to the Charles Atlas course.

I, Chuck Hardy, will my ability to stay in band when everyone else has quit to Vance Hurt. Here are some vitamin pills, Vance. Maybe they will help you.

I, Harry Hays, will my ability to finish my Senior year at school in one term, and go on to college to Charles Parish. There isn't much I can give you, Charles. Just use your will power and determination.

I, Sharon Gallion, will my ability to make at least 360 stencils during 3 years of office work to Lois Franz. Here's a stencil to start a record. Lois.

I, Ronald Harman, will my job as taxicab driver for the Hatton kids to Robert Erdman. Robert, as a symbol of the taxicab drivers of Hatton, I give you this block of wood to help keep you within the speed limit.

I, Catherine Curry, will my ability to skip P.E. at least three times a week, and still get a P.E. sweater, to Wilma Mack. Here's an apple to bribe your teacher with.

I, Clara Maier, will my ability to cut my hair at least once a week to Shirley Albershardt. Here, Shirley, is my scissors. I've cut my hair so often that it doesn't grow anymore, so I thought you might like the scissors.

I, Pete Jungblom, will my ability to get on the first string in basketball during my Freshman year to Larry Hougan. Larry, maybe this can of spinach will help. You know Popeye eats it and it helps him.

I, Willa Rinker, will my boots and saddle to Guyla Swarts. Oh, don't mind the size, Guyla. I hated to show what big feet I have so I got them a few sizes small, and then the saddle didn't look right so I bought you a new one.

The foregoing instrument, consisting of these two pages, was, on the 23rd of May, in the year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-two, witnessed, signed, and sealed by the following esteemed personages:

Mike Haase, Class President
Norman Sackmann, Vice Pres.
Sharon Gallion, Secretary
Willa Rinker, Treasurer
Wilford Pacque
Ronald Harmon
Chuck Hardy
Carla Labes
Harry Hays
Pete Jungblom
Clara Maier
Don Albershardt
Ed Wahl
Joy Ann Deerheim
Catherine Curry
Roy Fode

The above named are declared legally sane and competent. All reside in the town of Lind, state of Washington, and stand in honor of this Will.

Class Prophecy

Time 1972.

Not long ago our old classmate, Catherine Curry, decided to sell one of her oil magnate husband's oil wells and take a cruise around the world. She bought an ocean liner and a parrot and set out on her way. We take you aboard her liner now.

Scene: a rubber lifeboat.

"This is the life! It's such a strain being an oil magnate's wife. Such a greasy job. So I just decided to get away for a while. I have only one regret. I missed our Twentieth Annual Class Reunion. I wonder how everyone is.

Wonder what that is bobbing out in the waves. Well, well, a bottle. And look, a letter. To me!! Well, my fan mail surely gets around."

"Dear Katie,

Missed you at the reunion so we thought we'd drop you a letter and let you know how everyone is.

Wilford Pacque always was a snoopy soul. But, he used his talent to best advantages. They call him "Willie, the Wall-eyed private eye."

Oh! no! But—I guess it was inevitable. Don Albershardt always was a dainty, frail boy. Don went to France to become the world's foremost hair designer. His latest sensation is the "Bloodhound" cut. Really quite—ah—well, quite, anyway.

Clara Maier's ambition was to be a wave. Well, she's still a wave, and what's more, she's got a man in every port. I always knew she was the type.

Well, what do you know! Mike Häase—a professional wrestler! He's slated to fight Gorgeous George tonight. Poor George, he hasn't got a chance.

It seems Roy Fode was jilted by one of his Ritzville girls, so he decided to go as far away as he could. He is now an Australian Bushman, and sheep herder.

I always knew that Carla Labes and Joy Ann Deerheim must have had some kind of talent, and it finally revealed itself. They are great radio comediennes; a female Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis.

Chuck Hardy was such a great basketball player that he went on to Vassar College for Women as head coach. He calls his team the "Amorous Amazons" and they have now set 50 world records.

I remember when we were Seniors we voted Pete Jungblom the most likely to succeed. Sure enough, he has gone as high as a member of this noble calling can rise. Last year his colleagues voted him "King of the Hoboes."

We find Sharon Gallion in the Ralston branch of her Lonely Hearts Club. It seems she wished to dedicate herself to humanity. She's already united 50 happy suckers.

Harry Hays got quite attached to fleas when he spent three years in the Army, so now in civilian life he has become a professional flea trainer. He has a flea circus which makes an annual tour between Schragg, Paha, Lind, and Hatton.

Well, well, a politician in our midst yet. Ronald Harmon has been elected mayor of Hatton, on the platform that he will clean up the slums and build a 1500 room apartment house.

I remember when we were in high school Willa Rinker used to have trouble with her figure. Sounds like she finally resigned herself. She's the fat lady in Ringling Bros. circus.

Aha! Two members of our class have found fame in the professions. Ed Wahl and Norman Sackmann have become the world's best connoisseurs of fine liquor. Here we see them discussing business.

Verna Stelzer Heimbigner has outlived seven husbands and is married for the eighth time, thus accumulating quite a family and a fortune at the same time. She now lives in Paha and the population has increased so much they've had to build a new school.

Catherine Curry

Class History

On September 8, 1948, nineteen shy and unsuspecting convicts entered their first year of Lind High School Prison. On their first day of prison life, they found Mr. Brown as their most worthy warden, but at the half of their term, they found that they were under the custody of Mr. Collister. We gained one new inmate during the year, Joan Ackland, who was paroled later on good behavior.

To break the monotony, a club was formed with blue and gold as the colors, the blue and yellow iris as the flower, and the motto, "Be sharp, Be natural, but never Be flat." A board of directors was chosen, and served their term successfully.

The number of inmates had decreased to eighteen as we served our second term. We admitted Chuck Baker, Wilford Pacque, and Aleen Thomas to our happy little group of convicts. We lost one member, Darlene Englehart. Warden for the year was Miss Trickett. The club gave a Patch Party for the entire Penitentiary.

On our journey up the river, on the sixth day of September, 1950, twenty-one bright, conscientious "crooks" began their third term. Mrs. Berk was our keeper for the year. The traditional "Convicts' Prom" was held on April 7, 1951. An annual "Parolee-Inmate Banquet" was enjoyed.

Alas! The final year of slavery has arrived. Some of us were getting kind of used to it. Our board of advisors for the last year of our prison sentence was as follows: Chairman, Mike Haase; Sub Chairman, Norman Sackmann; Secretary, Sharon Gallion; Treasurer, Willa Rinker. For some reason they had to have two wardens during our last year so they were Miss Krehbiel and Mr. Drummond. Among the activities sponsored by the Lind Senior Inmates were: the successful Senior Play, Senior Ball and Senior party along with the Jr.-Sr. Banquet, and the Senior Sneak. (We escaped for only 25 hours.)

Harry Hays and Verna Stelzer Heimbigner returned to be released with our happy little organization.

We have served our four year term with happiness and diligence but always remember, "old Seniors never die, they just serve their term."

Joy Ann Deerheim

Class Memorial

We the Senior Class of 1952 present the remainder of our class treasury to be added to the trophy case fund which was started by the class of 1950.

This trophy case will occupy a place in the new High School building which will be under construction shortly.

A gold plaque attached to the case will serve as a memorial to all who view the High School's achievement awards.

Suggestions for Good Behavior

From Inmates About to be Paroled

- Shirley Keough—Some people are funny; then there's you.—
Carol Lee Krehbiel—Keep up your gesturing and someday you'll be a great dramatic actress.
Don Carlock—Give the girls a chance to appreciate your muscles, Don!
Guyla Swarts, Mona Martin, and Bev Swarts—Quiet down, gals. This building is old and it won't take too much to knock it off its foundation.
Marilyn Barnes and Wilma Mack—We like your jolly spirit. Keep this place going next year.
Edgar Deaton—You're a good debater. The Student Council needs you!
Jerry Dirks—Don't be so mean to the girls and you'll get along better.
Evelyn Lobe—You're a swell friendly girl. You live up to the Seniors' standards.
Caroline Erdman—Talking to yourself is bad enough, but let us know when you start answering yourself.
Robert Erdman, Vance Hurt, Ira Branson and Gary Nickells—As future Sophomores, it's time to learn how to treat women.
Nancy Englehart—Only two more years to go. Keep going!
Stanley Haase—With that curly hair and dry wit, you'll be another Phil Harris.
Kay Campbell—We'll miss you, Kay. Too bad there aren't more like you.
Cleve Borth—Be careful who you bat those big beautiful eyes at!!!
Joyce Zarndt—Be more democratic. Everyone's entitled to his own opinion!
Bob Fode—Be a little more friendly than your brother was.
Dick Long—You're cute! Don't change a bit and you'll run Romeo a close second.
Norma Keough—Keep working at the theater. Someday you, too, will find your man there.
Ruth Fode—Keep up the family tradition and become Student Body President next year.
Dick Schoessler and Shirley Davison—Take it easy, kids. There's a time and place for almost everything!
Don Rott—Glad to see you've finally started associating with the opposite sex. We'd almost given you up for lost.
Rita Phil—Keep your pleasant disposition. We like you that way.
Helen Hurt—Be more friendly. You'll be surprised when you see where it gets you.
Betty Weeks—Speak up, gal! Give people a chance to be friends with you. When we got to know you, we liked you a lot.
Donald Klemmer and Mary Ann Davis—Yours is what a High School romance should be. Never have we seen such chivalry. Keep it up.
Joan Mayfield—Don't quit school, Joan. He'll be around when you graduate.
Lee Abney—Give out with some of that charm. There's enough for all of us.

- Kenneth Kanzler and Clifford Hays—Make a little noise so we'll know you're around.
Carl Davis and Dick Cline—The Senior Boys have a special formula ? for adding height and weight to their stature. Try it sometime!!
Norman Bischoff—Come on, son. Show 'em what a lady-killer you can be!
Shirley Albershardt and La Rean Haggerty—Capitalize on that blonde hair and get yourselves a man.
Lois Franz—Keep studying, Lois. We need more brilliant people in this old world.
Eddie Fode—Where did you get those cute dimples????
Loretta Bischoff—You'll make some guy a swell wife someday.
Dick Englehart—All you need now is one of those high-powered Chryslers!
Evelyn Fode and Margaret Moon—You make cute pals. We like to see such friendly people.
Darlene Gallion—Get together with Mack and learn a few of the latest jokes. They're really pretty good!
Orville Branson—Lose about 100 pounds and keep singing. Then you'll run Frank Sinatra competition!
Charles Parish—Hurry up, Chas! The Army won't wait forever!!
Raymond Ashcraft—With your talented drum-playing, you'll end up in the Marine Band!
Hazel Heil and Norma Gheres—Don't be so sophisticated! We aren't used to it.
Janet Hougen—Where in the world did you get that Southern accent? We sure envy you!
Jerry Kanzler—We just don't know about you. We read and re-read our Biology book, but you're not listed anywhere!
Marietta Parish and Joyce Mayfield—Give the upperclassmen a rough time next year. Don't let them run you around!
Norman Pouley—Who taught you to laugh like that? Boris Karloff?? Or does it come natural?
Marley Moon—We're glad to see there's at least one non-drinker in the Junior Class!???
- To the Juniors—Grow up! You've got to show some superiority next year. Also, remember that the lower-classmen will be looking up to you as examples to follow. So—No reckless driving, nothing stronger than milkshakes, and no girls or late nights. Try to uphold the standards that we've set during the past year!
- To the Sophomores—Well, kids—our advice to you is—Learn to get along with your superiors, meaning next year's Seniors. They really aren't so bad! And it's lots more fun when we're all one big happy family.
- To the Frosh—Next year you'll be Sophomores! (We hope!!) So let 'em know you're around!
- To the In-coming Frosh—Remember, you're only beginners! So keep your eyes and ears open and learn the ropes!! And have fun!
- To the Faculty—Keep on being such nice people. But make your assignments longer. We never did have enough to do!!

Senior Sneak

On Tuesday, September 25, 1951, at 1 a.m., the Almighty domineering Seniors of '52 left on their Sneak for Diamond Lake. It was a joyous occasion as we made our departure completely unnoticed. We arrived in Spokane at 3 a.m. and our final destination at 4.

The day was spent loafing around the cabin and boating. Some hardy souls undertook hiking in the damp foliage. The weather was quite cool as it was raining and the wind was blowing, but we had a wonderful time.

We went back to Spokane tired but still game enough to see some shows. After one of the most successful sneaks ever devised, would you believe it! we got back in time to witness our cremation that evening!!
—Mike Haase

Senior Ball

The class of 1952 held their Senior Ball in the Lind gymnasium on October 13, 1951.

The theme of our Ball was taken from the song title "Stormy Weather." The entrance to the dance floor was covered with a huge umbrella. On the sides was featured storm clouds with lightning bolts striking through them. Blue and yellow crepe paper represented the sky, while a revolving spotlight made a striking effect as a rainbow. The stage was our main attraction, with a silhouetted couple standing in the wind as the backing.

The "Ephrata Downbeats" furnished the music, which was enjoyed by all, and the dance proved to be a great success.

—Clara Maier

Senior Play

"Out of the Frying Pan," a comedy in three acts, was presented by the Seniors on April 30 and May 1, 1952, in the gymnasium. The play centers around four girls and three boys who are sharing the same apartment for financial reasons only. They are actors waiting for their chance in the theater. It so happens that a big movie producer lives just underneath them and this makes it more exciting as the play goes on.

Junior Class Resume

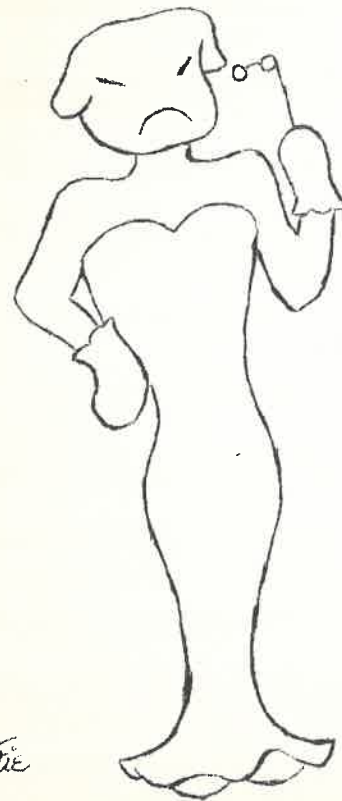

On September 5, 1951, twenty-three hale and hearty Juniors came up the stairs of old L.H.S. and due to a change of home rooms we returned to Room 302 with Mr. Mahan as our class advisor. At the end of the first quarter we lost Aleen Thomas and at the end of the first semester Shirley Keough left us and moved to Sandpoint, Idaho. As an aid to the financial condition of our class, we collected scrap iron making over two-hundred dollars. We also gave two bake sales. Virginia Bruce entered our class at the beginning of the fourth quarter.

On November 16, 1951, we held a "Girl Ask Boy" party. Everyone dressed in costumes and a prize was given to Kay Campbell who had on the most effective disguise.

On April 5, 1952, we held our Junior Prom. Our theme was "Tahiti My Island" and we decorated in the colors of Orchid, Purple and Yellow. A volcano with beautiful lighting set off the decorations. Music was provided by the "Madhatters" from Othello. The dance was considered a success and enjoyed by all.

On May 16, 1952, the Junior-Senior Banquet was held. Starlight was the theme and all other plans and preparations were built around it. Entertainment was furnished by members of the junior class and by the servers. The servers were Evelyn Lobe, Mary Ann Davis, Joyce Zarndt, Robert Fode, Stanley Haase, and Donald Klemmer.

Resume

The year began for us as a joyful one. Several of the boys turned out for the various sports offered, and were successful in them.

Three of the girls from the room were chosen to be the school cheer leaders. These were Mary Ann Davis, Queen; Helen Hurt and Evelyn Lobe, assistants.

The two Homecoming princesses were also chosen from our room. They were Shirley Ann Albershardt and Carol Lee Krehbiel.

Our class party was given the night of Homecoming, and was a very successful party with Alumni attending as well as high school students.

Resume

In the fall of 1951, seventeen eager Freshmen marched up the steps to begin their high school career.

We decided to keep our eighth grade flowers which are pink and white carnations, and also our class motto, "You can't push anyone up a ladder unless he is willing to climb a little."

We chose our colors to be maroon and gray and we are very pleased with our class sweaters which are in these colors.

One of the main problems facing us was raising funds for us in the coming years. Money making projects included back breaking paper drives, selling Lind Leader subscriptions, and others.

We gave a successful class party in March.

Mrs. Berk, our class advisor, has helped us through many difficulties throughout the year.

We are looking forward to three more happy years at Lind High.

Band Resume

The annual Adams County Fair was the first important event for the band. It played at the Friday night football game between Ritzville and Lind and marched in the Saturday parade, September 22.

The band played at the four home football games. Highlighting these games was the Homecoming celebration, October 26. The band presented a half-time marching show which included letter formations and fancy maneuvering.

The Fall Band Concert was presented on November 17. A preview of this concert was given to the Odessa student body on November 15. Performances for seven home basketball games was handled by the pep band. This select group of fifteen members obtained new orange jackets which helped add much color to the games.

Other outstanding events for the year included the Eastern Washington district solo and ensemble contest at West Valley High School, March 8; the Bi-County solo and ensemble contest at Reardan, March 13; the Bi-County Band Contest at Harrington, April 19; the Eastern Washington district Band Contest at Lewis and Clark High School, April 26; and the Marching Band Contest at Odessa, May 17.

Climaxing these events was the Spring Instrumental Review, April 12.

In addition, the band and its members were called upon frequently for music for many other events, such as the F.F.A. Banquet, Plays, Baccalaureate and Commencement.
