Lind-Ritzville High School

Dedication to Mrs. Yerxa

Kathy Yerxa
1952 - 2017

Mrs. Yerxa taught at Ritzville Grade School for almost 40 years!
Students describe her as caring, nice, funny and AWESOME!

Class of 2018 in Mrs. Yerxa's first grade class

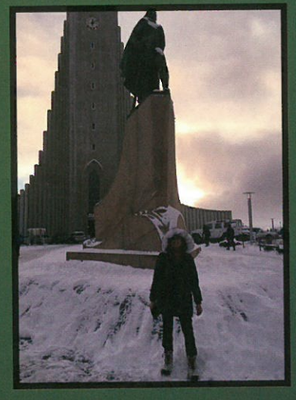

Mrs. Yerxa with fellow grade school staff

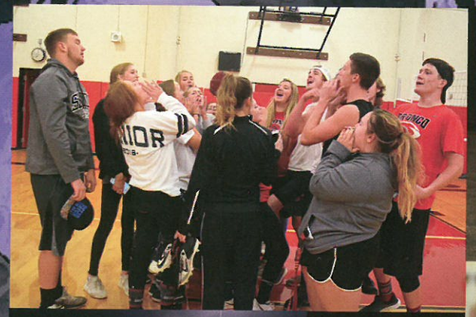

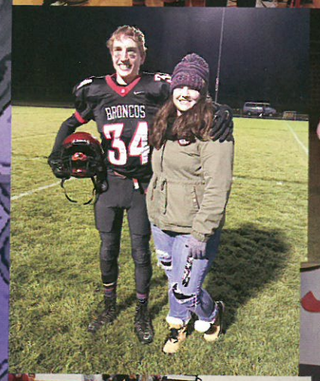

Mrs. Yerxa loved to travel and explore but her passion was reading and her family, including granddaughter Jensen.

There were very real life situations

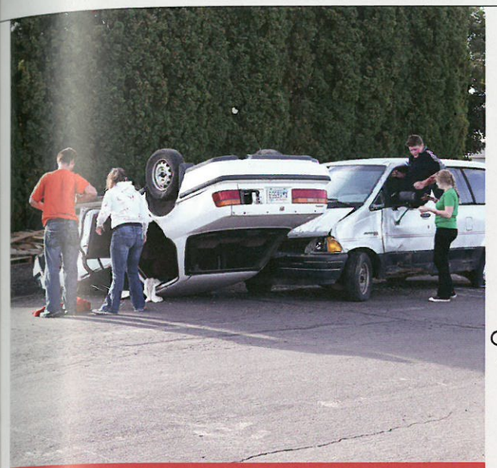

Loading the victim into the back of a van.

Uh, they hit someone...

The students involved with helping with the mock crash were Morgan Lane, Jeffrey Staley, Austin Hall, Sophie Smart and MicKayla Hall.

Ritzville Mock Crash

The mock crash was presented by the community's first responders. The purpose was to emphasize the dangers of texting while driving and driving under the influence.

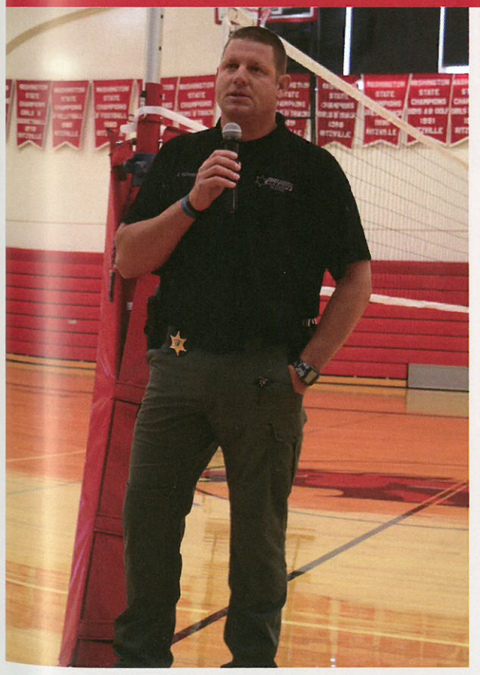

Washington State Patrol

Fire Department

Danekas Funeral Home

Special Thanks

Thank you to all the first responders that participated: Adams Co. Task Force, Washington State Patrol, City of Ritzville Police, Adams Co. Sheriff, Fire Department, EMTs, and Danekas Funeral Home. Officer Josh Sainsbury informed everyone on the dangers that come with texting, speeding, and driving under the influence.

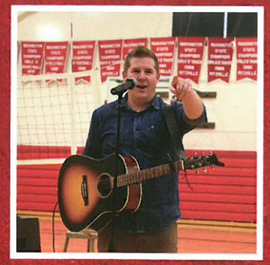

The first responders did a very good job at making the situation feel realistic for the students of LRS.

Goodbye Lind-Ritzville High School

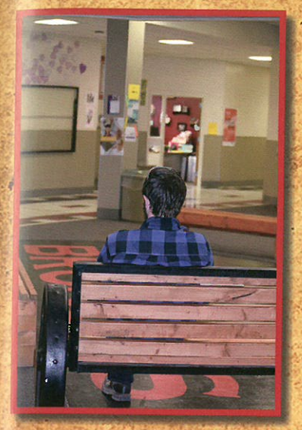

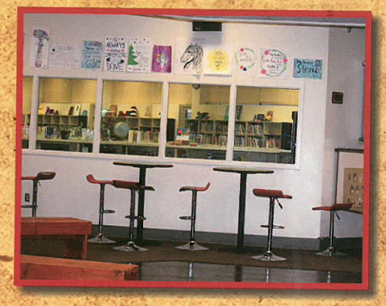

Taxpayers approved a bond that will result in a complete renovation of the building. Upgrades will be made to safety and technology.

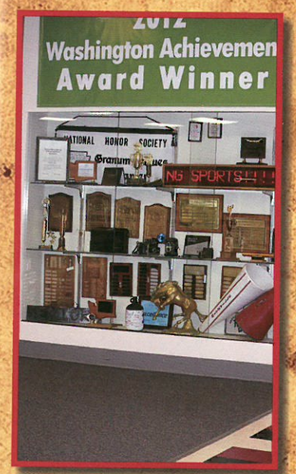

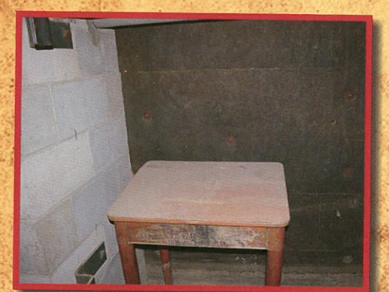

The entire lay out of the school will be changed, including the placement of classrooms. These pictures are of Lind-Ritzville High School as it has existed since 1983.
