CLASS HISTORY

Up the stairs eagerly marched 26 excited Freshmen on September in 1947, for their first year of High School. With Mr. Brown to guide us in our first year we chose gray and crimson as class colors, pink and white carnations as class flowers, and the motto of "While We Rest We Rust". We found we had gained one new student, Marjory Schoenrock, and later gained Gerald Black and Beverly Compton.

Our number had increased to thirty when we climbed to the door of old LHS as Sophomores. During the year we were happy to gain Erma Phil, Juanita Englehart, Lois Rinker, Tom French, and Sam Kasonke. However, we were sorry to lose Juanita, Lois, Tom, and Sam. We were still happy though to claim one of the largest classes in school. Mr. Wilson acted as advisor.

In our third year as upper-classmen 28 smug Juniors marched confidently into their new home room to find Mrs. Berk who was to advise them in their third of High School. During the year we gained Del Reynolds, Charles Parrish, Marion Moore, and Irene Erdman, but later lost both girls, Ronnie Boures, and Jerry Rinker.

On March 4th, 1950 the Junior Prom was held in the Lind gym. The theme was an old fashioned garden surrounded by a picket fence and bedecked with roses, daisies, and sweet peas. Russ Andre' and his orchestra furnished the music for a very enjoyable evening.

"Blue Hawaii" was the theme for the very successful Junior-Senior Banquet. Mary Jane Curry acted as our toast master.

To lead us in our last year back at the old grind we chose Lorene Longmeier, President; Yvonne Reeve, Vice President; Marjory Schoenrock, Secretary; and Irene Fode, Treasurer.

To the theme of "Moonlight Serenade" the gym was decorated in blue, black, and white for the Senior Ball held October 7. We danced to the enjoyable music of Bill Grafmiller.

We were happy to welcome Dona Jean Weeks, Jim Proctor, and Forrest Nelson to our class making a total of 23 students. We lost Donna Klemmer, Orval Woodruff, and Forrest Nelson.

On June 1, Class Day was observed, with Baccalaureate June 3rd, and Commencement on June 7th. With this the Seniors closed a very well remembered 12 years.

MEMORIAL

This year the Senior Class chose to put its money into the Spinnet Fund. Instead of having this Spinnet go into the new building we voted to go ahead and have it used for Chorus work in the old building. We hope the following Seniors will help add to this fund.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of Lind High School, being of sound mind and in full possession of all our faculties, do hereby declare this to be our last Will and Testament—made under duress, insomnia, and in a state of indigestion—this 1st day of June in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty-one. We do hereby will and bequeath the following—our property:

- I, MARJORY SCHOENROCK, will to my sister, Shirley, this blanket. Maybe now you'll be able to stay warm when I go to college.
- I, PATRICIA CLINE, will my ability to cut my hair once a week, to George Peters. Here's a bowl to help you get it the right shape.
- I, LOREN RUSHMEIER, will my ability to skip Geometry at least twice a week to Stanley Haase. Here's a pad of blue slips already forged. Good Luck.
- I, LORENE LONGMEIER, will my ability to go steady three years and keep my work up all the time to Guyla Swarts. Stay in school Guyla and don't get sick too much, then you can get it all done in school.
- I, BARBARA HAGGERTY, will to Joyce Zarndt, my ability to drive for two years without a drivers license and not be picked up. I've been studying the habits of the patrolman. This little black book contains all my tricks on how to elude him.
- I, JIM PROCTOR, will my bottle of peroxide and my curlers to Richard Cline. Use accordingly, but not sparingly.
- I, WALLEEN ASHCRAFT, will my ability to study hard in Civics and English III to my brother, Raymond. Here, Ray, be sure and study hard in Civics especially. It helps in English too.
- I, ERMA PHIL, will my ability to wear high-heels and get sore feet every time to Marianne Davis. When you start wearing them, these Dr. Scholls corn pads will come in handy.
- I, JACK BAXTER, will Mr. Drummond my sense of humor. This little book has been my Bible all through high school. I hope you get as much good out of it as I did.
- I, BEVERLY COMPTON, will my ability to gain weight any time I don't want to, to Willa Rinker. This box of candy will help. I'm sorry I got a little hungry.
- I, DONNA KLEMMER, will all my papers to my brother Donald. If you have as hard a time as I did, these might come in handy.
- I, LEE WILLIAMS, will my cowboy boots and ten gallon hat to Carl Davis. The boots are to elevate you up so you can get on the horse and when he bucks you off use the hat to parachute down. This is to aid your comfort while riding.
- I, YVONNE REEVE, will my ability to have a broken heart every two weeks to Kay Campbell. Here, Kay, I hope this bottle of glue will patch things up a bit.

- I, DARLENE KEOUGH, will my long hair to Clara Maier. You don't seem to have gotten a very good start so maybe this will work for a while.
- I, ROBERT Heider, will my height to Lee Abney. Maybe these stilts will help.
- I, DOROTHY ALBERSHARDT, will my colgate smile to Joan Mayfield. This giant size will last a long time.
- I, BETTY POULEY, will my ability to get to school on time to Carla Labes. Here's an alarm clock, Carla. Maybe it will help you.
- I, ORVAL WOODRUFF, will my ability to skip every single test to Roy Fode. This medical book contains the symptoms to just about any disease. Hope they help you out.
- I, DONA JEAN WEEKS, will my ability to speed shift and dig out in Jigg's car to Marilyn Barnes. Here let this be a lesson to you.
- I, IRENE FODE, will my temper to Ruth Fode. Here's a thermometer, Ruth. It will help you to keep it under control. Believe me, it's hard to do.
- I, JERVIS KESTER, will my ability to say only two words all day to Edgar Deaton. Use this tape generously. You'll need lots of it.
- I, MARY JANE CURRY, will my ability to be victim of every art job in high school to Lorna Martin. Besides saving your clothes, this apron has a built-in color chart.
- We, the Senior Class, will the Juniors our ability to fight constantly with our teachers.
- To the Sophomores we will our ability to have fun after parties.
- To the Freshmen we will our good looks and ingenuity.
- To next year's Freshmen our ability to give good parties all through high school.
- To the faculty, we will this bottle of aspirin. We hope it will cure the headaches we have caused.

—By Mary Jane Curry.

CLASS PROPHECY

We take you now to the home of Mary Jane Curry, the world famous cartoonist, who has just returned to her home in New York from a trip over the Andes. In later years she has acquired a passion for flying and has a number of her own planes. "Oh, I'm afraid there will have to be a change in plans. There has been a terrible accident." Scene: A cloud in heaven.

Well, here I am. I never expected to get here this soon but a mountain got in my way. You know, it's not so bad up here, I can see what's going on all over the earth. I've always wondered what happened to all my dear classmates since the day we graduated some twenty years ago from old Lind High. This might be a good time to check up on them.

Gladys Giff Shoppe has come up in the world. And look who's modeling there. It's Marjory Schoenrock.

Why, there's the old "Greasy Spoon" Cafe, and—oh my stars! Pat Cline is singing there.

Robert Heider is a big game hunter. He has killed one of the most dangerous animals alive after a spectacular chase.

Irene Fode has become the U. S. Delegate to the United Nations. And that's Betty Pouley, her stenographer.

Oh, these radio programs! They're always annoying us up here. That voice sounds familiar. Why, I do declare! That's Jervis Kester with a job as a radio announcer.

Walleen Ashcraft has become the librarian at Lind High School. "Oh my, I get tired of picking up after those kids."

Zoom—Hey! Look you! For heaven's sake. That was Jack Baxter on his way to the moon. The "Mad Scientist" of L.H.S. has finally perfected that long-range rocket.

Beverly Compton went to beauty school and now she goes under the name, "Madame Champeaux." (Pronounced "Shampoo"). "Here Fido. Here Fido. Where did that dog go? His wave wasn't dry yet."

Erma Phil is still dieting. I wonder if she will ever lose that ten pounds.

Fate has thrown two of my old classmates together. Yvonne Reeve has become a nurse and the other day she got a new patient. I wonder what happened to Lee Williams. "I always knew those high-heeled boots would be my downfall."

Dona Jean Weeks got her inspiration in Drama Class. Since then she has gone on to become one of the great Shakespearean actresses. "Romeo, Romeo. wherefore art thou, Romeo?"

My goodness, Loren Rushmeier, what are you doing down there. "Cigareets and whuskey and wild, wild women . . ."

What in the world is that thing? Barbara Haggerty has become well known as an archeologist and has discovered the tombs of several Egyptians.

Dorothy Albershardt has become a teacher. Oh-oh-looks like trouble. "If I ever lay my hands on you, I'll . . ."

Here comes Darlene Keough, and, for goodness sake, she's the first lady of the land.

After her success as editor of the Lind Hi Lite, Lorene Longmeier went on to establish her own paper. It's called the "Paha Pill." Here comes Lorene now. "Extry. Extry. Read all about it!"

We always knew Jim Proctor would be a dentist, ever since that day he tried to pull Jack's tooth in Speech Class.

SENIOR BALL

The Senior Class presented its final school dance on October 7th, when the Senior Ball became a great success for us. The theme for the dance was "Moonlight Serenade". Everyone enjoyed dancing to the music of Bill Grafmiller and his orchestra. The gym was decorated in evening colors of blue, black, and white.

SENIOR SNEAK

Early one cool morning on May 23, nineteen members of the Senior Class met at the High School to start the great day of the Senior Sneak off right. The Almighty Seniors eagerly clattered into the school bus, accompanied by their class advisers, Miss Krehbiel and Mr. Drummond.

Their destination was Coeur D' Alene Lake in Idaho. They spent the day going up the lake in a cruiser, which was reserved for them. The Senior girls prepared the lunch that was enjoyed by all of the class members. After their day at Coeur D' Alene Lake, they rode back to Spokane to have dinner at the Desert Hotel. As soon as every one was through eating, they finished up the rest of the evening at the Natatorium Park.

Although the Senior Sneak is "past history" now, it will remain in the memories of the Seniors of 1951.

CLASS ADVICE

- CARL DAVIS—Try and get a girl, Carl, you've got what it takes.
- HELEN HURT—Keep using your good looks in the right way and you will succeed.
- JERRY DIRKS—Watch that giggle in Study Hall next year. Giggling is good for you but people do want to study.
- KAY CAMPBELL—Stick it out two more years. It really isn't very long to wait.
- MARLEY MOON & STANLEY HAASE—Let's hear more from you two. You're too quiet.
- JOY ANN DEERHEIM & CLARA MAIER—Remember the old saying, "Life is just a bowl full of cherries," and keep those happy attitudes.
- HARRY HAYS—Quit trying to make over the Lind girls. They're all right the way they are.
- LEE ABNEY—Lee, you had better get a horse next year. Dale won't be coming into town then.
- CAROL KREHBIEL—Slow down Carol Lee, you have three more years to go.
- MARILYN BARNES & WILMA MACK—Giggle less and concentrate more on your school work.
- MARYIANNE DAVIS—Voice your opinion—yours counts too.
- SHIRLEE DAVISON & NANCY ENGLEHART—Life isn't as hard as it seems to be.
- GARY LIMING—We're glad to see you not quite so bashful. Keep it up.
- CHUCK HARDY—Keep on playing the trombone. It might make a living for you.
- EVELYN LOBE—Keep up the good spirit. We need more of that.
- SHIRLEY SCHOENROCK—Don't be so full of vitality. It makes people want to work and that won't do.
- DONALD CARLOCK—Keep up the good work in basketball.
- ROY FODE—Pull out of your shyness. Let us know you're around.
- GEORGE PETERS—Slow down!!! There's a muddy road ahead.
- WILLA RINKER—Keep that friendly smile, it will add to your list of friends.
- FAITH JAY—Lay off the Navy. There are still a few boys left in High School who should be cheered up.
- ED WAHL—Drive slower—you'll live longer and so will others.
- CATHERINE CURRY—Take your mind off boys long enough to realize there are other important things in life. We know you can.
- VERNA STELZER & CARLA LABES—There's a war going on, girls, so take advantage of the time you get with those fellows.
- RICHARD CLINE—Think up some new jokes—those old ones get kind of tiresome.
- SHARON GALLION—Do a little more giggling than you do. After all someone will have to take the Senior girls place.
- RUTH FODE—Don't be quite so bashful. Give these guys a chance.
- DARLENE GALLION—Keep up the good attendance. Somebody has to go to school around here.
- SHIRLEY ALBERSHARDT—Keep up the efficient way of getting things done. It may come in handy in the future.
- ERWYN JAY—Keep up the good work that you have been doing in football.

CLASS ADVICE

DON ALBERSHARDT—Find yourself a girl. There are lots of them waiting for the opportunity.

DICK SCHOESSLER—Cut down on the proteins. You're getting short.

NORMAN SACKMANN—Take care of your dad's car. You may not be able to get them in the future.

SHIRLEY KEOUGH—Watch your temper or you won't need a light to find your way in the dark.

CLEVE BORTH—Keep up the wonderful work in Football—We need it.

RICHARD ENGLEHART—Don't whisper so loud in Study Hall. Someone may be listening.

WILFORD PACQUE—Keep working Wilford, and you'll make it through school yet.

CAROLINE ERDMAN—Be different than your brothers and sisters and finish school—it's great fun.

PETE JUNGBLOM—Don't get tired of sports your last year in high school and let us down.

JOYCE ZARNDT—You have a pleasant disposition. Keep using it in the right way and you will go places.

RONALD HARMON—Don't tease so much—tell jokes or something.

NORMA KEOUGH—Show some of your wittiness—that is what we need.

JOAN MAYFIELD—Take care of your voice. A good chorus is always important in school.

MIKE HAASE & KENNY KANZLER—You two should get together. The combination would make the ideal football player.

NORMAN POULEY & CLIFFORD HAYS—Do something spectacular and people will know you're around.

DONALD ROTT & RAY ASHCRAFT—Keep doing good in basketball. Everyone is cheering for you.

ORVILLE BRANSON—Keep giving people good advice—and they'll appreciate it.

EDWIN FODE & GERALD KANZLER—Bring back the freshmen boys—we lost them someplace.

ALEEN THOMAS—Keep up the good typing—someday you'll be the President's secretary.

LORETTA & NORMAN BISCHOFF—You two make a wonderful sister and brother team.

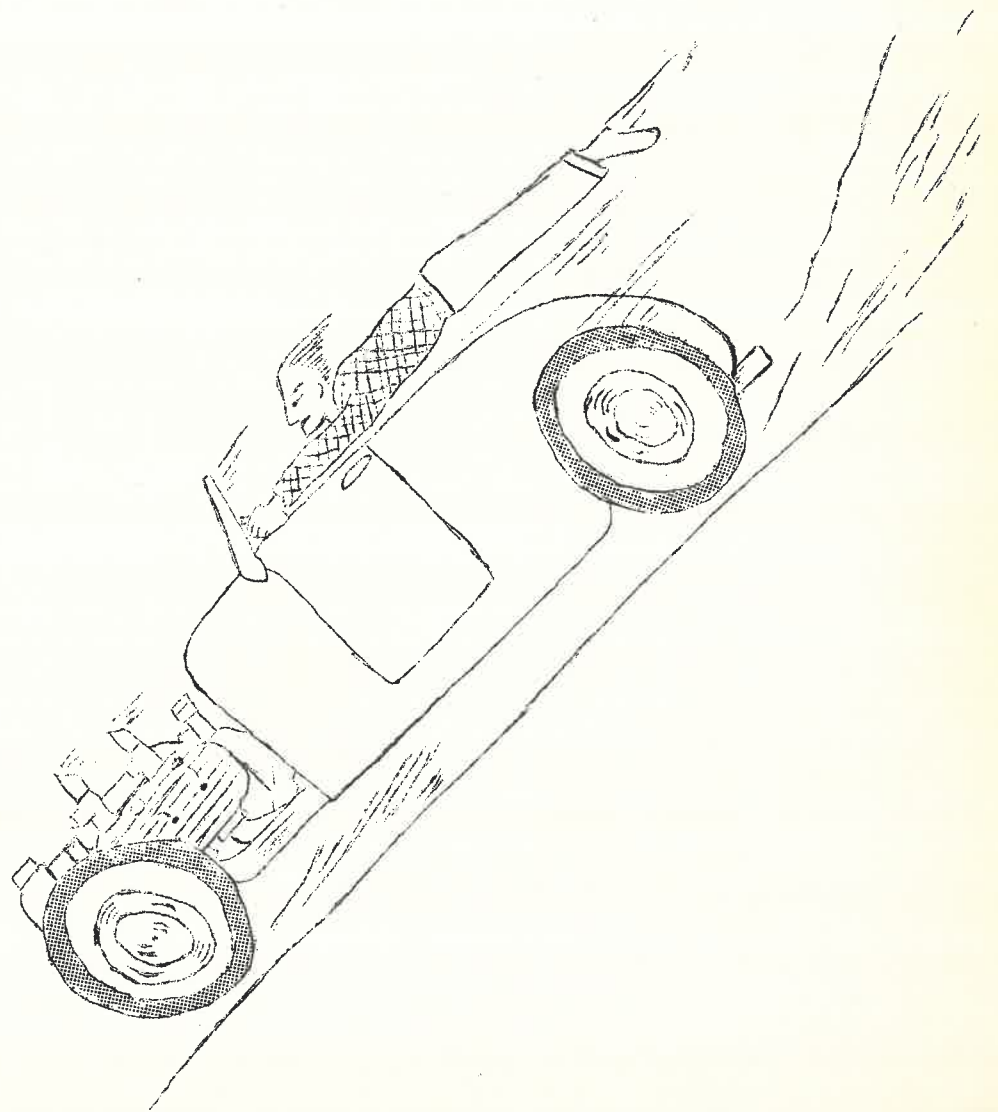

DONALD KLEMMER—Buy a bicycle—then you won't have to walk your girls home.

EDGAR DEATON—Don't talk so much you wear everybody out.

LARENA HAGGERTY—Get interested in some Lind boys, they're swell too.

We, the Senior class of 1951 are leaving this advice to the under classmen in hopes that they will take in consideration what we advised.

RESUME

The Lind High School band has been very busy this year with school performances. A concert was given on December 18, which included the Beginner, Junior, and Senior Bands. Throughout the year all of the students in the band worked hard to raise money in which to buy more and better band uniforms.

Several of the High School students went to Davenport to the music meet. The ensemble and soloists played. They went to Spokane on Saturday, March 17, to attend another band soloists' meet.

F. H. A.

This fall our FHA started with Mrs. Berk as our leader. We have about 28 members in our chapter. The officers for the year were:

President	Mary Jane Curry
Vice president	Betty Pouley
Secretary	Darlene Keough
Treasurer	Carla Labes
Project Chairman	Clara Maier
Chapter Reporter	Dorothy Albershardt
Sgt. at Arms	Joy Ann Deerheim
Chapter Mother	Mrs. William Curry

The new members were installed by the chapter at Clara Maier's home and were given pins.

The group found a way to make money by selling hotdogs, candy, pop, and cake at the FFA carnival. Other activities the FHA did during the year were, caroling, cooking, and serving at the FFA banquet. There was a bake sale on election day and tea was served after the Home Economics style show by this group of girls.

The girls all agreed that they had a very successful year and are hoping that next year will be more successful and enjoyable and will keep up the good work.

—Betty Pouley

The FFA started in its 1950-51 year of work with Lee Williams, President; Jack Baxter, Vice President; Robert Heider, Reporter; Roy Fode, Treasurer; Don Albershardt, Secretary; Ed Wahl, Sentinel; Mr. McKay, Advisor.

In this year's work there were 29 active members. The first activity of the chapter was to send Roy Fode to the National FFA Convention, October 6-15, at Kansas City, Missouri. They also sent the judging team to Portland to enter in the judging contest at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition.

To pay for these trips the chapter had a successful Carnival in the High School Gym on October 31. A steer was given away at the carnival also. During the Christmas season the chapter sold Christmas cards.

The chapter has $250 out in a chapter land fund. This is to help the boys who can not finance their own projects.

The parliamentary procedure team took third in the sub-district contest at Deer Park. On February 24 the Golden Grain Chapter was host to six parliamentary teams for the district contest and also the district Public Speaking Contest.

There were two state farmer applicants this year. This is a state award and is next to the highest award that can be won by an FFA member. These members were Roy Fode and Lee Williams.

On March 17 the chapter held its annual Father and Son Banquet. It was a success, with a variety of entertainment.

A number of the boys took animals to the Junior Livestock Show in Spokane. The Golden Grain Chapter of Lind felt that it has completed a successful year of work.

SKI TRIP

At 6 o'clock, Saturday, February 17, seventeen girls and their advisor, Mrs. Betty Berk got on a school bus, driven by Henry Berk and started on their way to Mt. Spokane. They arrived at Spokane and picked up their ski clothing and skis. They went to the lodge in private cars because the buses couldn't go over the road.

They then headed for the beginners hill and spent the late morning and early afternoon skiing.

For entertainment that evening there was dancing, card playing, skiing, or walking.

With a wonderful weekend the girls returned home to continue with their school work once more.

TENNIS

In order to know who would represent Lind at the tennis games, playoffs were used. The following girls were seeking top tennis honors: Kay Campbell, Marilyn Barnes, Catherine Curry, Shirley and Norma Keough, Verna Stelzer, Loretta Bischoff, Evelyn Lobe, Wilma Mack, Caroline Erdman, and Helen Hurt.

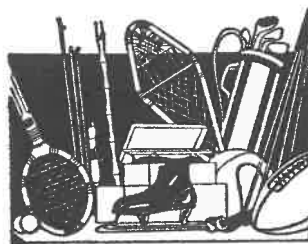

The boys who were interested in tennis worked their way to the top the same as the girls. They were: Chuck Hardy, Dick Cline, Clifford Hays, Pete Jungblom, Kenneth Kanzler, Gary Liming, George Peters, and Norman Pouley.

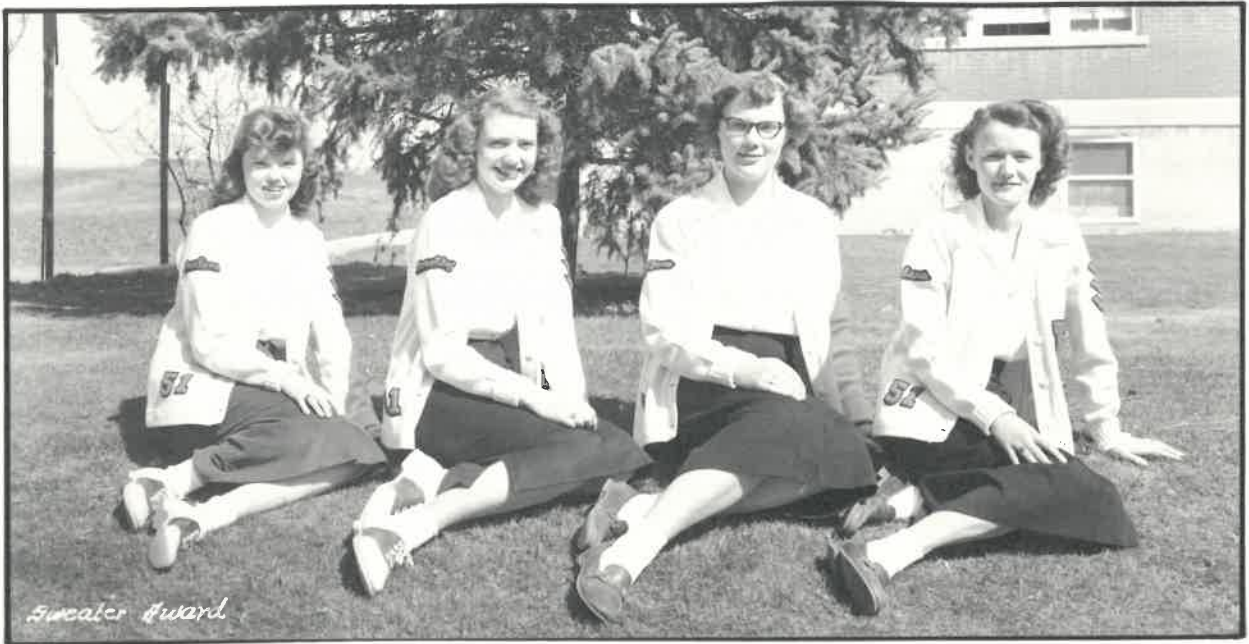

During the year they played Odessa, Sprague, Davenport, and Ritzville.

GIRLS' P. E.

The Girls P.E. class began another busy year with the girls playing tennis. The rest of the year was spent playing volleyball, jollyball, badminton, and baseball.

On February 6, the Ritzville girls met the Lind girls in a basketball bout. Ritzville went home very happy because of a triumph over us.

The conference games played during the 1951 season were:

April 13	Odessa	there
April 27	Sprague	here
May 4	Ritzville	there
May 11	Harrington	here

Because this article was written before any of the games were played, it is impossible to list the scores and lettermen.

Last year was the second consecutive year in which we won the District Championship. We hope to attain that goal and make it three years.
