DEDICATION

A BIT OF HISTORY OF LIND SCHOOL
compiled from The History of Adams County Washington, Volumes I & II, Adams County Historical Museum, and past Lind High School yearbooks.

The first public school was organized in Lind in 1890. The first building consisting of a single room was completed in 1891. Due to lack of funds each child was required to bring their own desk and chair to school and furnish their own textbooks. Henry Jansen and Walker Merriman, two of the early pioneers of Lind, were instrumental in obtaining the first school for the community and were members of the first school board. The first teacher was Burt Neare who taught all 8 grades. The children who attended the first school in Lind in 1890 were: Annie Jansen, Fritz Jansen, Christina Jansen, Essie Armstrong, Tom Fitzpatrick, Mike Fitzpatrick, Clarence Lipold, Florence Lipold, William Lipold. The first school building was used both for a school and church.

In 1903, longest serving school board member (15 years), John Krehbiel was instrumental in constructing the Brick School Building in 1908 and later a new gymnasium. Other board members who served during the early history of the Lind Schools were: Walker Merriman, 1901-03; Al. R. Haas, 1903-07; T. L. Middleton, 1907-10; M. L. Schemmerhorn, 1905-11; J. W. Henderson, 1910. The first students to graduate from the Lind High School were: Allie Urquhart and William Curry in 1909. The first girl to graduate was Carolyn Moore in 1911.

The Lind High School was the product of a gradual growth from a one-room rural school to what it is now. The first schoolhouse was built in 1898, the second in 1902, a third in 1908 (which housed both grade and high school students). The building was demolished following the completion of the now present grade school building in 1962. Lind's present Junior-Senior High building was erected in 1953. A modernization of LHS was completed in 1995-96.

Over 100 years of students have been educated in Lind. Some interrupted their education to serve our country and fight for our freedoms, some left after graduating to make their futures elsewhere and some stayed to raise their families and have their futures turn into our past fathers and mothers of Lind.

Keeping two separate school districts, an academic cooperative with Ritzville will begin in the fall of 2012. The current high school in Ritzville will be called Lind-Ritzville High School. The new Lind-Ritzville Middle School (which will be grades 6-8) will be conducted in Lind in the current building located at N. 507 E Street.

Sports have been combined since the fall of 2003.

We dedicate our last high school yearbook to all of those who have passed through Lind High School halls.

SENIOR QUOTES & WILLS

Jose:

While you busy tryin' to fit in, I'm going to stand out. – Wiz Khalicia

I, Jose Alvarez, being of disoriented mind and Herculean body do hereby bequeath--Brittany-my manual car driving skills so you won't get arrested. Connor-my rapping abilities so you can throw a party on 5th Ave. Scott-my aviation and hacking skills, they'll come handy in the dating game. Even though I'm gone I'm with all of you spiritually.

Andrea:

If you don't like something, change it. If you can't change it, change the way you think about it. – Mary Engelbreit

I, Andrea Bennett, will my ability to wear sweatpants at least 4 times a week to Diana Longoria. I also will my ability to experience many clumsy accidents without ever breaking a bone to Maya Wahl.

Alicia:

I don't need a friend who changes when I change and who nods when I nod; my shadow does that much better. – Plutarch

I will my ability to shrug off "the bumps in the road that come your way" to all underclassmen and women.

Andy:

All things are difficult before they are easy. – John Norley

I, Andy Derrick, give all the young adults my skills in the Ag Shop.

Micheala:

Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened! – Dr. Seuss

I, Micheala Doyle, will my ability to keep up on assignments after fair and to be organized throughout the year to Taylor Kulm.

Mackenzie:

Everyone fits into three categories: crazy, stupid, or crazy and stupid; there's no in-between. – Unknown

To Ruby Silva and Sabrina Bauman, I will my ability to talk and get things done--at the same time.

Aaron:

There is no future in any job. The future lies in the man who holds the job. – George Crane

I, Aaron Hayes, will my ability to hardly ever show up to my 8th period TA to Dustin Norton. I, also, will my amazing baseball skills to Dane Wahl. And my sarcastic smart-aleck attitude to Brittany Blaske. I, also, will my ability to not brown-nose teachers to Casey Sackmann.

Cathrine:

In my world, everyone's a pony and they all eat rainbows and poop butterflies! – Dr. Seuss

I will my ability to Jenna Bennett to have 16 missing assignments in math and still have a C!

Salvador:

Diamonds and cars don't make a man happy; your jewels in life are your friends and family. – S.P.M.

I will all my unexcused absences to Berto Valdovinos.

Brandon:

Take delight in the Lord, and he will give you the desires of your heart. Psalm 37:4

I will my ability to get to school right as the bell rings but still be on time to Bridger Smith. I also will my freakish ability to leave a lasting aroma in the Ag Shop halls to Williams. I will my ability to be extremely vocal and loud at pep assemblies to Shawn Neal--enjoy my friend!

Derrick:

Whether you think you can or think you can't--you are right.-- Henry Ford

I, Derrick Laird, will my ability to being lazy to TigToy (Dustin Norton).

Grayson:

Alone we are sparks; but together we burn bright. – The Used

I will my amazing wrestling skills to Grayson Whitaker.

Bryson:

You better check yourself before you wreck yourself. – Unknown

I, Bryson O'Neill will my ability to do little to no lifting in weight training and not get yelled at by Mr. Arlt to Connor and TigToy. I also leave my ability to grow an epic beard to Bridger "Reem" Smith and Johnny Hernandez. Lastly, I leave my knowledge to know that Taipei is the capitol of Taiwan and not Bangkok to Maya Wahl.

Kaytlin:

You can't win if you don't enter! -- Uncle Jay

I, Kaytlin Phillips, will my ability to NOT be the last person on the practice/game bus by senior year to Maya Wahl. I will my sweet neon pink Nike running shoes to Mr. Ellis once he can fit into them.

Tommy:

The best executive is the one who has sense enough to pick good people to do what needs to be done, and self-restraint enough to keep from meddling with them while they do it. – Unknown

I leave my overwhelming computer tech abilities to anyone who can figure out how to turn on a computer.

Josh:

Destiny is not a matter of chance; it is a matter of choice.-- Unknown

I, Josh Van Slyke--aka. JVS, will my secret welding glove hiding spot to Bryden Laird.

Lexie:

Remember no one can make you feel inferior without your consent. – Eleanor Roosevelt

I, Lexie Whitaker, will my speedy softball running skills and amazing organization to Christina Field. I will my positive attitude and beautiful fake teeth to my friend, Brittany Blaske. I will my love for children to Mr. Williams. I will my understanding of common sense and blonde intelligence to Maya Wahl. I will my charming good looks, abilities, and agronomy knowledge to my brother, Grayson Whitaker.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

NOZOMI MIYAMOTO

Coming to our small town from Toyko, Japan was an adjustment for Nozomi--we are sure! Her host family was Ms. Kerry Murphy and her daughter, Holly. Nozomi has an older brother, Junichi, and an older sister, Asami.

From the first day of school, Nozomi joined in with everything. A disappointment for her was when she found out that sushi wouldn't be part of the lunch options. Nozomi's favorite class was math. No matter what the sport season was, you could find her participating--volleyball, basketball, or tennis.

We are glad to have gotten to know you, Nozomi, and thank you for being part of our school this past year.

Trying to stay warm at football games. Catty & Maya give thumbs-up to blankets!

PERNILLE SCHULTZ

Pernille lived with the James Wahl family and introduced herself as Penny to all of us. Her family resides in Bolderslev, Denmark. She has three siblings: Anders-12 years old, Josephine- 10, and Victoria- 8.

Traveling around Europe, her knowledge of six languages comes in handy--Danish, German, Swedish, Norwegian, a bit of French, and English. Her favorite subjects included history, civics, and English.

Back home, Penny really enjoys her two sport horses, Celette and Coco Chanell S; here at LHS, she played volleyball. Penny helped when she could with all of the Junior Class duties. She really enjoyed serving hot dogs!

Penny, thank you for sharing your friendship with us.
